Fourth Judicial District announces District Court vacancies Commission sets date to select nominees

The Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet May 12, and, if necessary, May 13, 2015, in Colorado Springs to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to two District Court judgeships in the Fourth Judicial District (El Paso and Teller counties). The vacancies will be created by the resignation of the Honorable Barney Iuppa and the retirement of the Honorable Thomas Kennedy. The vacancies will occur on July 1, 2015.

To be eligible for appointment to fill a vacancy, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the Fourth Judicial District and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $145,219. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Allison H. Eid, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the district administrator, Danny Davis, 270 S. Tejon, Colorado Springs, CO 80901. Applications also are available on the court's home page at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The original, signed application form and an identical copy stored electronically as a PDF file (please see instructions below for more detail) must be filed with the ex officio chair no later than 4 p.m. April 22, 2015. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill a vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. April 15, 2015.

The members of the nominating commission for the Fourth Judicial District are: Mary Lou Makepeace, Lynn Olney, Trudy Strewler Hodges, Jack Donley, Beth Lieberman, and Larry Gaddis, all of Colorado Springs; and Mary Barrowman of Florissant.

FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT NOMINATING COMMISSION

Applicant should send a copy of this instruction to each of his or her requested references.

REQUESTED REFERENCE ON BEHALF OF _____.
(Name of Applicant)

The above individual is applying for an existing vacancy on the Fourth District Court bench. The applicant is requesting that you write a letter of reference. It is not inappropriate for you to decline to do so. In writing such a letter, the Judicial Nominating Commission requests that you specifically address both the strengths and weaknesses of the applicant under separate headings. If you believe the applicant has no weaknesses relative to his or her capabilities to be a district court judge, you may so state. Finally, please rate the applicant, i.e., outstanding, excellent, above average, average, below average, or poor. All letters of reference are strictly confidential. A copy may not be sent to the applicant. The original letter (in paper) must be received on or before April 22, 2015 at 4:00 p.m., and addressed directly to:

Justice Allison Eid
Colorado Supreme Court
Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission
2 East 14th Avenue
Denver, CO 80203

If you are hand-delivering your letter, please deliver it to the Clerk's Office. We do not accept emails of any materials.

It is extremely important to the Commission that you be as objective as possible in assessing the applicant's qualifications. We rely very heavily on letters of reference and unless you are totally objective in your comments, the Commission cannot properly carry out its function. Do not feel compelled to endorse the applicant merely because you have been asked to write a letter of reference on his or her behalf.

Sincerely,

Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission
