Case No.: 06CW72 Court: District Court, Water Division No. 7. (4) Appropriation date: September 22, 2006. (5) Amount: 0.25 c.f.s., conditional. (6) Use: Pursuant to the decree in Case No. 06CW72, the decreed uses include domestic, agricultural, commercial, irrigation, fire protection, recreational, piscatorial and water supply purposes related to the Indian Shadow development on the Property. C. CRV Exchange Right: (1) Date of original decree: January 4, 2008, (amended March 28, 2011). Case No.: 06CW72 Court: District Court, Water Division No. 7. (2) Location: The CRV Exchange Right is a conditionally decreed appropriative right of exchange involving an exchange on the La Plata River. The source of substitute supply is a 0.25 c.f.s. interest in the Brown Brothers Ditch water right, administered as Priority No. 2 in the La Plata River basin. This 0.25 c.f.s. interest in the Brown Brothers Ditch water right was the subject of a change of use proceeding in Case No. 06CW72. The downstream terminus of the exchange reach is at the Brown Brothers Ditch diverting at the La Plata Irrigating Headgate located on the East Bank of the La Plata River from which stream said ditch derives and diverts its water at a point 954 feet S., 49", 0' W., from NE corner of the NE¼SW¼, Section 14, Township 35 North, Range 11 West of the N.M.P.M. in La Plata County, Colorado. The exchange reach operates upstream from said La Plata Irrigating Headgate to the CRV Well Field, located as described in paragraph 3.B.2, above, and further upstream to the Keller Ditch headgate, located as described in paragraph 3.A.2. Water diverted by exchange may be used directly in accordance with the augmentation plan adjudicated in 06CW72 or stored in the CRV Lakes via either the CRV Well Field and/or the Keller Ditch. (3) Source: The La Plata River and its alluvium. (4) Appropriation date: September 22, 2006. (5) Amount: 0.25 c.f.s., conditional. (6) Use: Pursuant to the decree in Case No. 06CW72, the decreed uses include agricultural, commercial, irrigation and water supply purposes related to the Indian Shadow development on the Property. Such uses include, but are not limited to, domestic, irrigation of lawns, gardens and parks, fire protection, recreational, wildlife, piscatorial, augmentation and replacement of historical return flows from the 20 Acres, exchange, use as a substitute supply, and to meet replacement, return flow, or other obligations related to other decreed water rights, and storage in CRV Lakes for these purposes. 4. Detailed outline of what has been done toward completion of the

appropriation and application to a beneficial use. A. As set forth in paragraph 35 of the decree in Case No. 06CW72, the conditional water rights, including the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right, the CRV Well Field Water Right and the CRV Exchange Right (the "Subject Water Rights") are part of an integrated water supply system for the Indian Shadow development pursuant to C.R.S. § 37-92-301(4)(b). As a result of the nationwide economic downturn commencing shortly after the issuance of the decree in Case No. 06CWC72, the Indian Shadow development has proceeded at a slower pace than originally anticipated. Development plans continue, however, and CRV has applied a steady application of effort to complete the conditional appropriations in a reasonably expedient and efficient manner under all the facts and circumstances. B. During the diligence period, Applicant caused CRV Lake No. 1 to be constructed and lined in accordance with the requirements of the decree in Case No. 06CW72. CRV Lake No. 1 is fully operational, and during the diligence period, Applicant caused water to be diverted through the Keller Ditch into CRV Lake No. 1 in priority and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the decree. During the diligence period, CRV Lake No. 1 has been filled to its capacity of 30 acre feet. Applicant incurred significant costs associated with these efforts during the diligence period. C. During the diligence period, Applicant obtained well permits and caused the CRV Well Field to be constructed in accordance with the requirements set forth in the decree in Case No. 06CW72. Infiltration Gallery/Wells A and B are now functional, but given the reduction in the speed of development, only sporadic diversions have occurred during the diligence period for pump testing purposes and very limited landscape irrigation purposes. As a result, CRV seeks diligence as to the CRV Well Field Water Right at this time, but reserves the right to make some or all of the CRV Well Field Water Right absolute to the extent diversions occur in priority and water is beneficially used in accordance with the requirements of the decree in Case No. 06CW72 during the pendency of this proceeding. Applicant incurred significant costs associated with these efforts during the diligence period. D. During the diligence period, Applicant operated and maintained the Keller Ditch. The Keller Ditch has an independent senior water right that is not the subject of this application. The ditch structure is also used, however, to fill CRV Lake No. 1 under the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right and is the upstream terminus of the CRV Exchange Right. As such, the Keller Ditch is part of CRV's integrated water supply system. Applicant incurred costs associated with these efforts during the diligence period. E. During the diligence period, Applicant operated and maintained CRV Lake No. 1. Applicant has incurred costs associated with these efforts during the diligence period. Applicant has also released water from storage in CRV Lake No. 1 for augmentation purposes during the diligence period. F. Although development plans associated with the Indian Shadow Project have not proceeded as quickly as Applicant would have liked due to the economic downturn in the Hesperus area, Applicant has nonetheless continued to operate and maintain the components associated with the water supply for the future development. Applicant has incurred costs during the diligence period associated with these efforts. Applicant has also incurred expenses associated with the design of both a water treatment plant and a wastewater treatment plant during the diligence period. Applicant has yet to break ground on those plants, but has incurred design and engineering costs during the diligence period. G. During the diligence period and in light of the economic downturn, Applicant filed for and obtained an amendment to the augmentation plan portion of the decree in Case No. 06CW72. Said amended decree was entered on March 28, 2011, which revised the number of lots and slightly reduced the overall depletions associated with the development. In addition, during the diligence period, Applicant obtained county approval of a revised Indian Shadow Development Agreement. Applicant incurred both legal and engineering expenses during the diligence period related to these efforts. H. Subsequent to the entry of the decree in Case No. 06CW72, Applicant has diverted water into CRV Lake No. 1 and applied the resulting stored water to decreed beneficial uses, including recreation, piscatorial and augmentation purposes. 5. Water applied to beneficial use: At various times during the diligence period and when in priority, Applicant diverted water under the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right at the Keller Ditch headgate in accordance with the requirements of the decree in Case No. 06CW72. These diversions, and the carry-over of stored amounts from year to year, have been sufficient to fill the entirety of CRV Lake No. 1, up to a capacity of 30 acre feet. A copy of the Annual Water Diversion Report for CRV Lakes Water Storage Right during the diligence period is attached as Exhibit B. CRV subsequently beneficially used the resulting water for recreation, piscatorial, augmentation purposes. As a result, CRV seeks to make the entire 30 acre feet of the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right absolute in this proceeding. 6. Name(s) and address(es) of owner(s) or reputed owners of the land upon which any new diversion or storage structure, or modification to any existing diversion or storage structure is or will be constructed or upon which water is or will be stored, including any modification to the existing storage pool: New diversion and storage structures (CRV Well Field and CRV Lake No. 1) were constructed during the diligence period, but all on lands owned by the Applicant. No modification to any existing diversion or storage structure is needed to complete the conditional appropriations and none are contemplated at this time. As a result, additional notice requirements by certified or register mail, as set forth in § 37-92-302(2)(b), C.R.S., do not apply in this instance. WHEREFORE, Applicant requests the Court to enter its decree and ruling as follows: A. To make the entire 30 acre feet of the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right ABSOLUTE; B. For a finding of reasonable diligence as to the CRV Well Field Water Right and the CRV Exchange Right, and, to the extent the Court determines that some amount less than the full 30 acre feet of the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right should be made absolute in this proceeding, a finding of reasonable diligence as to any such remaining conditional amount associated with the CRV Lakes Water Storage Right; and, C. To make absolute any portions of the conditionally decreed Subject Water Rights that are diverted in priority and applied to beneficial use during the pendency of this proceeding. (10 pages)
