

How to Adopt an Adult

1. Basic Information

- File in the county where either the adoptive parent (Petitioner) or person seeking to be adopted (Respondent) reside.
- Each adoptive parent must file a separate Petition.
- If the Respondent is 18-21 years old, you can request to use the child adoption process instead. That process allows the Court to change the listed parents on the birth certificate. C.R.S. § 19-5-201.
- You must have the Petition and Summons formally delivered (personal service) on the Respondent.
- The Respondent must file a written answer to the Petition; letting the Court know if they consent to the adoption.
- If the Respondent consents to the adoption, the Court will grant the adoption in a document called a Decree.
- The Decree can change the Respondent's last name to match the Petitioner's. For other name changes, read JDF 432 – Name Change Guide.
- The law that directs this process is C.R.S. § 14-1-101.
