Important!
Read this notice as it relates to an automatic temporary order against both parties.

Notice: Colorado Revised Statutes §14-10-107, provides that upon the filing of a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage or Legal Separation by the Petitioner and Co-Petitioner, or upon personal service of the Petition and Summons on the Respondent, or upon waiver and acceptance of service by the Respondent, an automatic temporary injunction (temporary order) shall be in effect against both parties until the Final Decree is entered, or the Petition is dismissed, or until further Order of the Court. Either party may apply to the Court for further temporary orders, an expanded automatic temporary injunction, or modification or revocation (change or cancel current temporary injunction) under §14-10-108, C.R.S. or any other appropriate statute.

1. Both parties are restrained (restricted) from transferring, encumbering (make difficult or burden), concealing (hide), or in any way disposing of (get rid of), without the consent of the other party, or an Order of the Court, any marital property (property purchased or received during the marriage), except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life. Each party is required to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures (expenses beyond the normal) and to account (notify, give reason and description) for all extraordinary expenditures made after the injunction is in effect; and
2. Both parties are enjoined (prohibited) from molesting (bothering) or disturbing the peace of the other party or the minor child(ren); and
3. Both parties are restrained (prevented) from removing the minor child(ren) of the parties, if any, from the state without the consent of the other party or an Order of the Court; and
4. Both parties are restrained (prohibited), without at least 14 days advance notification and the written consent of the other party or an Order of the Court, from canceling, modifying, terminating, or allowing to lapse for nonpayment of premiums, any policy of health insurance, homeowner’s or renter’s insurance, or automobile insurance that provides coverage to either of the parties or the minor child(ren) or any policy of life insurance that names either of the parties or the minor child(ren) as a beneficiary.

Nothing in this automatic injunction (order) shall prohibit either party from applying to the Court for further orders, an expanded (increased) automatic temporary injunction, or orders modifying or revoking (change or cancel) this injunction.

Petitioner and Co-Petitioner, if any, acknowledge (accept) that he or she has received a copy of, has read, and understands the terms of the automatic temporary injunction (temporary order) set forth in this Petition and the Summons.
