SEPARATION AGREEMENT (MARRIAGE)

EXAMPLE ONLY – COMPLETE FORM AS IT APPLIES TO YOUR SITUATION.

It is important to complete all sections of this form.

Only select none if either party actually does not have items for that category. If you have it, list it.

To promote the amicable settlement of disputes among parties, parties getting a divorce (dissolution of marriage) or legal separation may enter into a written separation agreement containing provisions for maintenance (spousal support) for either party and for the disposition of property and debt. The Court must follow the separation agreement as it pertains to the parties themselves and to property, unless the Court finds the agreement unconscionable, in which case it may order the parties to submit a revised agreement.

You may use this form as a separation agreement to submit to the Court. This standard form does not include every possible issue that may be relevant to the facts of your case. A section entitled "Other Terms" is available for you to identify unique issues that you may have in your case. If you need more space than is provided, attach additional pages to the form. Any additional pages must include notarized signatures.

Check the box that applies.

This is a:

- Full Agreement (We agree to everything and this Agreement is signed by both parties)
- Partial Agreement (We agree to some things and this Agreement is signed by both parties)

If this is a partial Agreement or the Agreement was prepared by one party, please complete and file with the Court JDF 1129 - Pretrial Statement to identify issues that you have not agreed on. This is a required form if you have any issues that you cannot agree on. A hearing may be necessary to address the issues.

Identify below any agreements not identified in Sections 1 – 4.

This is the place that you will identify any other agreements or arrangements you choose that have not already been addressed in any previous section.

Important Information - Please Read

- ◆ Change of title does not end the obligation you may have to notify the financial institution. Court approval of any provision to remove either party from a loan does not require the lender to actually release the party from the commitment.
- ◆ It is the responsibility of the party who is awarded the asset to prepare the necessary documents to change the title of the property with the county and to notify any financial institution, insurance companies, etc. of any changes.
- ◆ Joint debt of any kind, for example mortgage, cars, credit cards, remain joint until paid in full or refinanced. Joint credit cards should be destroyed and individual credit cards issued to each spouse to avoid future liability.

The Parties understand that if either of them refuses to execute any documents under this agreement, C.R.C.P. 70 allows the Clerk of the Court to do so. A party may also ask the Court for sanctions for the other party's refusal to follow this Order.

Please re-read this document carefully to make sure it accurately reflects your agreement. This document includes all agreed upon terms and your signature below indicates that you have read and agree with all terms identified within this agreement.
