ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS

You have been accused of violating the traffic laws of the State of Colorado. A procedure is available for the payment of fines, costs, and surcharges if you voluntarily admit your guilt or liability after being advised of the following rights:

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

1. Be represented by an attorney at your own cost.
2. Remain silent because any statement you make may be used against you.
3. Deny the allegations against you and have a hearing, at which time the allegations must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.
4. Testify, subpoena witnesses, present evidence, and cross-examine the witnesses for the State.
5. Appeal any judgment against you.

Any answer you make must be voluntary and not the result of any undue influence, and you must understand that points may be assessed against your driving record if you admit guilt or liability.

PLEASE NOTE CAREFULLY

Your failure to sign the reverse side of this form and pay the fine and costs or appear on the appearance date indicated on your ticket, will result in a default judgment being entered against you.

If you choose not to accept this plea bargain by mail you must personally appear for your initial court date indicated on your ticket. That appearance is one where you can still accept the same plea bargain or set the case for a Final Hearing. You will not be able to see the County Court Judge, the law enforcement officer, or the District Attorney on that date. Your ticket is considered a civil matter and not a criminal matter. Therefore, the District Attorney's office is not involved in your case and will not negotiate a better plea bargain with you. This will be the only plea bargain that you will be offered with no further reduction in points.

If you wish to dispute your ticket, you may set your case for a Final Hearing which will be held approximately 6-8 weeks from your initial court date. A final hearing is a trial where the law enforcement officer will appear to present his or her case. You will then be given an opportunity to present your case to a County Court Judge.
