

20th JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF COLORADO

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 23-103

SUBJECT: Probation Supervision in the 20th Judicial District

To: All Judicial Officers, Court Executive, Chief Probation Officer, Clerk of Court, Court Staff, Probation Staff, District Attorney, Public Defender, Boulder County Bar Association, Community Justice Services, County Attorney, Sheriff, Jail, Law Enforcement

From: Ingrid S. Bakke DATE: October 20, 2023
Chief Judge

Applicability of Standard Terms and Conditions of Probation in Cases Sentenced to Supervision by the 20th Judicial District Probation Department

Unless ordered otherwise by the sentencing trial court, upon entry of a sentence to be supervised by the 20th Judicial District Probation Department, the Standard Terms and Conditions of Probation shall be in full force and effect.

Parties to cases in the 20th Judicial District may request adjustment or modification to the Standard Terms and Conditions at the time of sentencing if circumstances support the modification of these requirements.

Probation Department Supervision of Bond for Individuals Currently Under Probation Supervised Sentences

The Probation Department shall supervise bond conditions for individuals placed on bond supervision who are concurrently being supervised by the Probation Department pursuant to other sentences or court orders. The Probation Department supervision of bond conditions shall be in accordance with both the conditions of bond and the Terms and Conditions of Probation in effect at the time an individual is placed on bond supervision.

Hon. Ingrid S. Bakke
Chief Judge
