Case No. _____

PETITION FOR REVIEW OF FINAL ACTION OF BALLOT TITLE
SETTING BOARD CONCERNING PROPOSED INITIATIVE 2015-
2016 #96 (“REQUIREMENTS FOR INITIATED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS”)

Timothy Markham (“Petitioner”), registered elector of the State of Colorado, through undersigned counsel, respectfully petitions this Court pursuant to C.R.S. § 1-40-107(2), to review the actions of the Title Setting Board with respect to the title, ballot title, and submission clause set for Proposed Initiative 2015-2016 #96 (“Requirements for Initiated Constitutional Amendments”).

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A. Procedural History of Proposed Initiative #96

Greg Brophy and Dan Gibbs (hereafter “Proponents”) proposed Initiative 2015-2016 #96 (the “Proposed Initiative”). Review and comment hearings were held before representatives of the Offices of Legislative Council and Legislative Legal Services. Thereafter, the Proponents submitted final versions of the Proposed Initiative to the Secretary of State for purposes of submission to the Title Board, of which the Secretary or his designee is a member.

A Title Board hearing was held on March 2, 2016 to establish the single subjects of the Proposed Initiatives and set their titles. On March 9, 2016, Petitioner filed a Motion for Rehearing, alleging that #96 contained multiple subjects and the titles set were prejudicial, incomplete, and misleading and failed to reflect the complete intent of the Proponents and the central features of the Proposed Initiative. The rehearing was held on March 16, 2016, at which time the Title Board granted in part and denied in part the Motion for Rehearing.

B. Jurisdiction

Petitioner is entitled to a review before the Colorado Supreme Court pursuant to C.R.S. § 1-40-107(2). Petitioner timely filed the Motion for Rehearing with the Title Board. See C.R.S. § 1-40-107(1). Additionally, Petitioner timely filed this Petition for Review within five days from the date of the hearing on the Motion for Rehearing. C.R.S. § 1-40-107(2).

As required by C.R.S. § 1-40-107(2), attached to this Petition for Review are certified copies of: (1) the draft, amended, and final versions of the initiatives filed by the Proponents; (2) the original ballot titles set for this measure; (3) the Motion for Rehearing filed by the Petitioner; and (4) the rulings on the Motion for Rehearing as reflected by the titles and ballot title and submission clauses set by the Board. Petitioner believes that the Title Board erred in denying certain aspects of the Motion for Rehearing. Consequently, this matter is properly before this Court.

GROUND FOR APPEAL

In violation C.R.S. §§ 1-40-106, -107, the title set by the Title Board is unfair, misleading, does not fairly and correctly express the true meaning of the Proposed Initiative. The following is an advisory list of issues to be addressed in Petitioner's brief:

1. The phrase included by the Title Board in the title set, "Making it more difficult to amend the Colorado constitution", is a prohibited catch phrase and is misleading and inaccurate for voters, given the Respondents' admission that the signature-gathering portion of the measure will have no effect on ballot qualification.
2. The title fails to describe that signature requirements per senate district will vary, even within the same election cycle, depending on the date the petition form has been approved for circulation.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Petitioner respectfully requests that, after consideration of the parties' briefs, this Court determine that the title set for the Proposed Initiative is not fair and accurate and remand the Proposed Initiative to the Title Board with instructions to redraft the title to accurately and fairly represent the text of the Proposed Initiative.

Respectfully submitted this 23rd day of March, 2016.

COLORADO BALLOT TITLE SETTING BOARD

Colorado Secretary of State

In re:

Initiative 2015-2016 #96

AMENDED MOTION FOR REHEARING

Chris Forsyth, a registered elector of the State of Colorado, objects to the Title Board's title and ballot title and submission clause set for Initiative 2015-2016 #96 pursuant to C.R.S. § 1-40-107.

On March 2, 2016, the Board set the following ballot title and submission clause:

An amendment to the Colorado constitution making it more difficult to amend the Colorado constitution by requiring that any petition for a citizen-initiated constitutional amendment be signed by at least two percent of the registered electors who reside in each state senate district and increasing the percentage of votes needed to pass any proposed constitutional amendment from a majority to at least fifty-five percent of the votes cast, unless the proposed constitutional amendment only removes language from the constitution.

ADVISORY GROUNDS FOR RECONSIDERATION

A. The Colorado Constitution reserves the right of the initiative to the people of the State of Colorado. Colo. Const. Art. V., Sec. 1., Para. (2). The Colorado citizen proponents must initially meet with the legislative research and drafting offices of the general assembly. Colo. Const. Art. V., Sec. 1., Para. (5). The proponents of this measure have not revealed themselves and have not met with the legislative research and drafting offices of the general assembly. We do not know that the proponents of this measure are Colorado citizens. We do know that Greg Brophy and Dan Gibbs are the designated representative of the proponents. And we also know that Greg Brophy is getting paid for his work. He has admitted to the Independent Ethics Commission that he is being paid to perform his work. Therefore, Brophy is merely the agent of someone else. The Colorado Constitution requires that the principal - the actual proponent - meet with the legislative research and drafting offices of the general assembly. Brophy is not the principal or proponent because he has admitted that he is getting paid for his services. The proponents of this measure did not meet with the legislative research and drafting offices of the general assembly. The designated representatives, Brophy and Gibbs, met with the legislative research and drafting offices of the general assembly. There is no jurisdiction for the Title Board to set title in this matter because there are no Colorado citizen proponents of this initiative. If this initiative is to be pursued, the actual proponents must re-file this initiative, reveal themselves, and meet with the legislative research and drafting offices of the general assembly. To allow this initiative to proceed further constitutes fraud.

B. Pursuant to C.R.S. § 1-40-104, the designated representatives are to file their mailing addresses. The designated representatives failed to provide the zip codes for their addresses and therefore failed to provide the mailing address. A zip code is an essential part of the mailing address. The Title Board does not have jurisdiction to set a title. See Hayes v. Ottke, 293 P.3d 551 (Colo. 2013).

C. Contrary to the requirement for a single subject in a ballot initiative, Colo. Const. Art. V., Sec. 1(5.5), #95 regards multiple, separate issues. The petition process to get an initiative on the ballot and the percentage of votes required to pass an amendment to the constitution are two distinctly different subjects. It is confusing to voters to put these two separate subjects into one initiative.

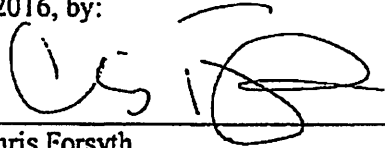

D. We don't know whether the title is reflective of the intent of proponents because we don't know who the proponents are. Contrary to the statutory requirements for a ballot title that is not confusing, not misleading, and reflective of the intent of the initiative, C.R.S. § 1-40-106, 107, the Board has erred by setting a title that is unfair and does not reveal that the measure:

- (1) Increases the consensus of voters required from a longstanding majority to 55% or, in other words, allows 46% of voters to deny an amendment desired by 54% of voters;
- (2) Does not allow a majority vote to change a provision currently in the constitution that was adopted by a majority vote;
- (3) Excepts repeals. You technically have to amend the constitution to remove any language. This whole measure is dubiously deceptive in that it allows amendments of a certain kind at 50% vote as opposed to other amendments that require 55%. The initiative is creating two categories of amendments and that is not clarified in the title;
- (4) Creates a system where one senate district can hold the rest of Colorado hostage and keep the constitution from being amended by refusing to sign a petition to put an initiative on the ballot even though all other senate districts have provided sufficient signatures;
- (5) Regards two completely separate processes: 1) the petition process to get on the ballot and 2) once a measure is on the ballot, the number of votes required to pass the amendment;

To say the initiative makes it "more difficult to amend the constitution" is inaccurate and is an impermissible catch phrase. The measure increases the consensus of voters from a longstanding majority (50%) to 55%. And the measure arguably makes it more difficult to get on the ballot, which is a separate and distinct question from amending the constitution.

The title for this measure is a particular challenge for a Title Board that is most familiar with the ballot process. The Title Board members can discern what the measure does because they are very skilled in this area. Voters, however, are not skilled in the petition and ballot process for initiatives. This measure and title is incredibly confusing to the average voter because it regards percentages for petitions and percentages of votes necessary to pass. To set a title for a measure such as this, the Board needs to consider that people need to be educated that to get on the ballot, a petition must be filed with a certain number of signatures. In other words, the title needs to be more remedial. To have the petition process and the votes necessary to pass in an election in the same measure is too confusing for the average voter.

BEFORE THE COLORADO BALLOT TITLE SETTING BOARD

Colorado Secretary of State

Timothy Markham, Objector,

vs.

Greg Brophy and Dan Gibbs, Proponents.

MOTION FOR REHEARING ON INITIATIVE 2015-2016 #96

Timothy Markham, a registered elector of Colorado, through legal counsel, Recht Kornfeld P.C., objects to the Title Board's title and ballot title and submission clause set for Initiative 2015-16 #96 ("Requirements for Initiated Constitutional Amendments").

I. The Title Board set a title for Initiative 2015-16 #96 on March 2, 2016.

At the hearing held in connection with this proposed initiative, the Board designated and fixed the following ballot title and submission clause:

Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado constitution making it more difficult to amend the Colorado constitution by requiring that any petition for a citizen-initiated constitutional amendment be signed by at least two percent of the registered electors who reside in each state senate district and increasing the percentage of votes needed to pass any proposed constitutional amendment from a majority to at least fifty-five percent of the votes cast, unless the proposed constitutional amendment only removes language from the constitution?

II. The Title Board erred by setting this title on March 2, 2016.

A. This measure violates the single subject requirement in the Colorado Constitution.

1. This initiative violates the single subject requirement by combining a substantive change to a fundamental right (imposing limitations on the exercise of the right of initiative) with procedural changes to the process of circulating initiative petitions.
2. This initiative violates the single subject requirement by restricting the voters' fundamental right of initiative and changing the ability of the people to authorize constitutional amendments placed on the ballot by the General Assembly.
3. This measure applies both to constitutional amendments adopted through exercise of the right of initiative and through measures referred to the voters by the General Assembly, thus limiting the powers of both the voters and the legislature to engage in distinct processes to propose a constitutional amendment

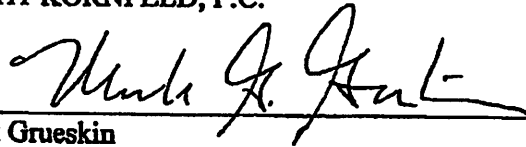

B. This title is inaccurate, misleading, and confusing to voters.

1. "Making it more difficult to amend the Colorado constitution" is a prohibited catch phrase and is misleading and inaccurate for voters.
2. If the title is to describe the goal of "making it more difficult to amend the Colorado constitution," that goal should at least accurately state that initiative's actual purpose which is "making it more difficult to exercise the fundamental right of initiative for the purpose of amending the Colorado constitution."
3. The title is misleading because it states this initiative does not apply where "the proposed constitutional amendment only removes language from the constitution" and does not indicate that it could apply to "any provision" or provisions of the Constitution.
4. The title fails to state that the new provisions apply both to constitutional amendments adopted through exercise of the right of initiative and through measures referred to the voters by the General Assembly.
5. The title fails to describe that signature requirements per senate district will vary, even within the same election cycle, depending on the date the petition form has been approved for circulation.
6. The title fails to describe that signature requirements per senate district will vary whenever district lines are redrawn, due to reapportionment or court order, even within the same election cycle, depending on the date the petition form has been approved for circulation.

WHEREFORE, the titles set on March 2, 2016 should be stricken altogether or modified to account for the concerns raised in this Motion for Rehearing.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 9th day of March, 2016.
