STIPULATED REQUEST FOR ISSUANCE OF PUBLIC CENSURE

On this 29th day of January, 2014, attorneys for Complainant, James S. Sudler and Katrin Miller Rothgery, Special Counsel for the Commission on Judicial Discipline, and Robert A. Rand, Respondent, who is represented by attorneys Gary B. Blum and Lisha R. McKinley in these proceedings, enter into the following Stipulated Request for Issuance of Public Censure ("Stipulation") and submit the same to the Commission and then to the Colorado Supreme Court for its consideration. In support of their request, the parties state as follows:

1. Judge Rand and Complainant stipulate to the following facts and conclusions:

a. Judge Rand was assigned to Courtroom L-2 in Loveland, Colorado until approximately June 1, 2013, when he was assigned to courtroom 4-D in Fort Collins. On July 3, 2013, Judge Rand was temporarily suspended pursuant to Colo. RJD 34 pending resolution of these proceedings.

b. While serving as a County Court Judge, Judge Rand engaged in undignified conduct, as follows:

- i. Judge Rand joked about the physical weight of the court collection officer.
- ii. Judge Rand joked with a female juror during the course of a trial about dancing during a break in the proceedings, which was a specific reference to the juror's profession as a dancer. Judge Rand attempted to create a friendly atmosphere in his courtroom, but this was misinterpreted by some.
- iii. Judge Rand made an inappropriate joke in private to his court clerk about the large breasts of a woman appearing before him in court.
- iv. Judge Rand commented on the physical appearance of an attorney who appeared regularly in his courtroom. Judge Rand states that his comments were intended to be friendly compliments to increase her confidence and comfort level in his courtroom.
- v. Judge Rand made comments from the bench about two attorneys appearing before him wearing "pearl necklaces," which one attorney felt had a sexual connotation.
- vi. Judge Rand invited a female public defender appearing in his courtroom to share pictures of her vacation with him and his staff in chambers. Judge Rand states that this was an attempt to be friendly.
- vii. During an interview with a potential clerk, Judge Rand told the female applicant about a time when a defendant in the courtroom speculated about the type of panties the clerk was wearing and asked the applicant how she would handle that type of situation.

c. While serving as a County Court Judge, Judge Rand engaged in ex parte communications, as follows:

- i. Judge Rand made telephone calls separately to counsel for each party regarding a negotiated plea deal, giving notice to the parties, separately, that he would not accept the plea deal or sentencing offer. Judge Rand ceased this practice when joint emails were raised as a solution.

ii. Judge Rand handled two cases, one in which the defendant was Matthew Reynolds, and another in which the defendant was Matthew's wife Nicole Reynolds. While the cases were pending in front of Judge Rand, Judge Rand had conversations about the cases with Matthew's sister Amy Reynolds, who had been Judge Rand's paralegal. At least one of these conversations took place in Judge Rand's chambers. Judge Rand disclosed to both sides that Amy Reynolds had formerly worked for him and invited a motion for recusal if desired by either side. He admits that he should have recused himself, even though this was never requested.

d. While serving as a County Court Judge, Judge Rand failed to promote confidence in the judiciary, as follows:

i. Judge Rand often remained on the bench after the day's docket was complete and engaged in off-the-record conversations with those still in the courtroom. Sometimes he gave defendants advice or pep talks. Judge Rand states that this was an attempt to "humanize" the courtroom.

ii. Judge Rand gave a defendant who was under 21 years old advice about how to handle peer pressure to drink alcohol by faking that she was drinking.

e. Through Judge Rand's conduct described above, Judge Rand has engaged in conduct constituting grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to Colo. RJD 36. Judge Rand violated Colorado Rules of Judicial Conduct 1.2, 2.8(B), 2.9(A) and (C), and 2.11.

2. As a condition of this Stipulation, Judge Rand agrees to resign from his position effective March 31, 2014.

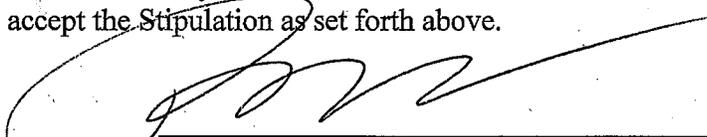

3. This Stipulation is premised and conditioned that it will be accepted by the Commission and the Supreme Court. If for any reason the Stipulation is not accepted without changes or modification, then the admissions, confessions, and stipulations made by Respondent will be of no effect. Respondent will have the opportunity to accept or reject any modification to the stipulation. If the respondent rejects the modification, then Respondent shall be entitled to a full evidentiary hearing; and no confession, stipulation, or other statement made by Respondent in conjunction with this offer to accept discipline of a public censure may be subsequently used. If the stipulation is rejected, then the matter will be heard and considered by a hearing board.

4. This Stipulation represents a settlement and compromise of the specific claims and defenses pled by the parties, and it shall have no meaning or effect in any other judicial discipline cases or lawyer regulation cases.

RECOMMENDATION FOR AND CONSENT TO DISCIPLINE

Based on the foregoing, the parties hereto recommend that a public censure be imposed upon Respondent.

Robert A. Rand, Respondent; Gary B. Blum, and Lisha R. McKinley, attorneys for Respondent; and James S. Sudler, and Katrin Miller Rothgery, attorneys for the Complainant, acknowledge by signing this document that they have read and reviewed the above and request the Colorado Supreme Court to accept the Stipulation as set forth above.
