Fourth Judicial District announces El Paso County Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet at the El Paso County Judicial Building on Oct. 4, 2017, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for El Paso County. The vacancy will be created by the resignation of the Hon. Daniel S. Wilson. The vacancy will occur on Sept. 15, 2017.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of El Paso County at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado. The current annual salary for this position is $156,278. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Nathan B. Coats, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the district administrator, Scott Sosebee, 270 S. Tejon St., Colorado Springs, CO 80901.

Applications also are available on the court's home page at

<http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The original, signed application and an identical copy stored as a PDF must be filed with the ex officio chair no later than 4 p.m. Sept. 11, 2017. Late applications will not be considered.

Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. Sept. 5, 2017.

The members of the nominating commission for the Fourth Judicial District are: Jack Donley, Larry Gaddis, Beth Lieberman, Juan Moreno, Mary Linden, all of Colorado Springs; and Daniel Nicholson and Philip Mella, of Woodland Park.

JUDICIAL NOMINATING COMMISSION APPLICATION FOR COLORADO STATE COURT JUDGESHIP

Instructions

1. The application form for a Colorado state court judgeship can be found on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>. You should only use the application that says it was updated 04/09. Do not use a prior version of the application. Please be complete and thorough in answering the questions; and, if an answer to any question requires more space than provided, attach a separate sheet of paper for each question.
2. Answers should be typed or printed in black ink and it is preferable that you use plain white paper. Do not use a font smaller than 12 pt. or margins smaller than 1".
3. Your completed original application should be paper-clipped only. It should not be bound in any way (no notebooks or tabs).
4. You must request letters of reference from three to five individuals who are in a position to comment upon your qualifications for a judicial position. All such letters shall be sent directly to the Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission, c/o Justice Nathan B. Coats, Ex Officio Chair, at the address listed below. You are instructed to tell your references not to send the original or a copy to you. A request for reference form is attached and must be used for each reference requested. In order to assure consideration of the letters of reference, they must be received on or before the date applications must be filed.
5. Your application original application should be filed at the following address. If you are hand-delivering your application, please deliver it to the Clerk's Office.

Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission
Justice Nathan B. Coats, Ex Officio Chair
2 East 14th Avenue
Denver, CO 80203

Please note – if you use USPS Priority Overnight Mail with a signature required you should allow an extra day for mailing.

6. Your application must be filed no later than: 4 p.m. on September 11, 2017.
7. Call Nikky at the Colorado Supreme Court Clerk's office with questions: 720-625-5175.

FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT NOMINATING COMMISSION

Applicant should send a copy of this instruction to each of his or her requested references.

REQUESTED REFERENCE ON BEHALF OF _____.
(Name of Applicant)

The above individual is applying for an existing vacancy on the Fourth District Court bench. The applicant is requesting that you write a letter of reference. It is not inappropriate for you to decline to do so. In writing such a letter, the Judicial Nominating Commission requests that you specifically address both the strengths and weaknesses of the applicant under separate headings. If you believe the applicant has no weaknesses relative to his or her capabilities to be a district court judge, you may so state. Finally, please rate the applicant, i.e., outstanding, excellent, above average, average, below average, or poor. All letters of reference are strictly confidential. A copy may not be sent to the applicant. The original letter (in paper) must be received on or before September 11, 2017 at 4:00 p.m., and addressed directly to:

Justice Nathan B. Coats
Colorado Supreme Court
Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission
2 East 14th Avenue
Denver, CO 80203

If you are hand-delivering your letter, please deliver it to the Clerk's Office. We do not accept emails of any materials.

It is extremely important to the Commission that you be as objective as possible in assessing the applicant's qualifications. We rely very heavily on letters of reference and unless you are totally objective in your comments, the Commission cannot properly carry out its function. Do not feel compelled to endorse the applicant merely because you have been asked to write a letter of reference on his or her behalf.

Sincerely,

Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission
