Fourth Judicial District announces two District Court vacancies
Commission sets date to select nominees

The Fourth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet at the El Paso County Judicial Building on May 1, 2024, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district judge for the Fourth Judicial District (El Paso and Teller counties). Two vacancies will be created: one by the resignation of the Hon. Marla Prudek and the other by the retirement of the Hon. Scott Sells. The vacancies will occur on June 1, 2024, and July 1, 2024, respectively.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the Fourth Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for these positions is $193,008. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Melissa Hart, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the court executive, Scott Sosebee, 270 S. Tejon St., Colorado Springs, CO 80903. Applications also are available on the court's website at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on April 8, 2024. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. on April 1, 2024.

The members of the nominating commission for the Fourth Judicial District are: Kathleen Cefus of Divide; Michael Allen of Monument; and Stella Hodgkins, Lisa Dailey, C. Onye Ikwaukor, Roland Rainey, and Misty Plowright, all of Colorado Springs.
