Seventh Judicial District announces Gunnison County Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The Seventh Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet at the Gunnison County Courthouse on Aug. 30, 2016, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Gunnison County. The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Hon. Ben F. Eden. The vacancy will occur on Jan. 10, 2017.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Gunnison County at the time of investiture and have graduated high school or attained the equivalent of a high school education as indicated by the Department of Education, based upon the record made on the General Education Development test. The annual salary for this position is $83,856, and it is a 55 percent position. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Allison H. Eid, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the district administrator, Thomas Maxwell, Montrose County Justice Center, 1200 N. Grand Ave., Montrose, CO 81401. Applications also are available on the court's home page at

<http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The original, signed application and an identical copy stored as a PDF must be filed with the ex officio chair no later than 4 p.m. Aug. 8, 2016. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. Aug. 1, 2016.

The members of the nominating commission for the Seventh Judicial District are: Erin Cavit of Lake City; Richard J. Haggerty and William Masters of Telluride; Leah Gates and David Masters of Montrose; Eric H. McPhail of Gunnison; and William Raley of Delta.
