17th Judicial District announces District Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The Seventeenth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet via videoconference on July 7, 2020, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district judge for the Seventeenth Judicial District (Adams and Broomfield counties). The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Hon. Edward C. Moss. The vacancy will occur on Aug. 15, 2020.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the Seventeenth Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $173,248. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Brian D. Boatright, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the court executive, Patricia Kmitta, 1100 Judicial Center Dr., Brighton, CO 80601. Applications also are available on the court's home page at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. June 23, 2020. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m.

June 16, 2020.

The members of the nominating commission for the Seventeenth Judicial District are: Jennifer Chavez, Martin Flaum, and Jennifer Hostetter of Westminster; Michelle Stermer and Gina Weitzenkorn of Aurora; and Jonathan Datz of Broomfield. The commission currently has one vacancy.
