New District Court judgeship created in the 21st Judicial District Commission sets date to select nominees

The Twenty-first Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet at the Mesa County Justice Center on June 14, 2019, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district judge for the Twenty-first Judicial District (Mesa County). The new district court judgeship was created pursuant to Senate Bill 19-43 and is effective July 1, 2019.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the Twenty-first Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $168,202. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if retained by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice William W. Hood III, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the court executive, Will Sightler, 125 N. Spruce St., Grand Junction, CO 81501. Applications are also available on the court's home page at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. May 24, 2019. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. May 17, 2019.

The members of the nominating commission for the Twenty-first Judicial District are: Scott Burrill, Amy Hand, Lesley McWhirter, Martha Kent, and Jacob Aubert, all of Grand Junction; and Anthony Clayton of Palisade.
