Judge Plewe appointed to District Court, County Court vacancy announced Commission sets date to select nominees

The Twenty-second Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet Friday, Oct. 15, 2010, at the Montezuma County Courthouse (109 W. Main, room 302, Cortez, CO 81321) to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Montezuma County. The vacancy is created by the appointment of the Honorable Todd J. Plewe to the District Court. The vacancy will occur on Oct. 1, 2010.

To be eligible for appointment to fill the vacancy, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Montezuma County and have graduated high school or attained the equivalent of a high school education as indicated by the Department of Education, based upon the record made on the General Education Development test. The annual salary for this position is $110,760.30, and it is a 90 percent position. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Michael L. Bender, 101 W. Colfax, Suite 800, Denver, CO 80202; the office of the district administrator, Eric Hogue, 109 W. Main, Room 210, Cortez, CO 81321; the Montezuma County Court Justice Building, 601 N. Mildred Road, Cortez, CO 81321; and on the court's home page at: <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The original and seven copies of the application must be filed with the ex officio chair no later than 5:00 p.m., Monday, Oct. 4, 2010. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 5:00 p.m., Monday, Sept. 27, 2010.

The members of the nominating commission for the Twenty-second Judicial District are: Richard Sims of Dolores; John Fury of Dove Creek; and James Hatter, Rebecca Root, Kelly McCabe, Janet Lytle, and Fred Blackburn, all of Cortez.

JUDICIAL NOMINATING COMMISSION
APPLICATION FOR COLORADO STATE COURT JUDGESHIP

Instructions

1. The application form for a Colorado state court judgeship can be found on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>. You should only use the application that says it was updated 04/09. Do not use a prior version of the application. Please be complete and thorough in answering the questions; and, if an answer to any question requires more space than provided, attach a separate sheet of paper for each question.
2. Answers should be typed or printed in black ink.
3. Each completed original and all copies of the application should be stapled ONCE in the upper left-hand corner. They should NOT be bound in any way, should NOT be in notebooks, should NOT have covers attached, and should NOT have sections of the application tabbed in any way.
4. While it is preferred that you submit your application on this standard form, you may choose to reproduce this form on a computer. If you do so, however, please ensure that the top and left margins are 1" and that the size of type is no smaller than 12 pt.
5. Applicants for county court judgeships who are not attorneys may modify the form as needed by inserting the words "not applicable" where appropriate.
6. If you desire, you may request that letters of reference be submitted from up to five individuals who are in a position to comment upon your qualifications for a judicial position. It is your responsibility to ensure that all letters of reference (with sufficient copies) are submitted to the Ex Officio Chair by the filing deadline. You may include the letters with your application, or have them sent separately. Letters received late may not receive consideration by the Commission.

Please Note: Reference letters must be resubmitted every time you apply for a judicial vacancy. Reference letters from previous applications are not available for reuse.

7. If you are applying for a district or county court judgeship, you need to file an original and seven (7) copies of your application.
8. Your application should be filed at the following address:
