Appointments and Objections

If you disclose "any familial, financial, or social relationship" and a party objects to the appointment the appointee shall:

- CFI appointment: Wait for the court to determine if the appointment should continue. If the court finds a conflict of interest or appearance of impropriety exists you shall not serve. CFI's are forbidden by Chief Justice Directive to seek or accept appointments were a conflict of interest or appearance of impropriety exists.
- Decision Maker appointment: Immediately decline the appointment when parties object. Statute and Chief Justice Directive prohibit appointment of Decision Maker without the agreement of the parties.
- PC, PRE and CLR: Wait for the court to determine if the appointment should continue when a party objects. Statute and Chief Justice Directive do not prohibit appointment without agreement of the parties; however the Court must confirm your appointment after an objection is filed in order to serve.
