

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMPLETE DISTRICT CIVIL (CV) CASE COVER SHEET JDF 601 FOR INITIAL PLEADING OF COMPLAINT, COUNTERCLAIM, CROSS- CLAIM, OR THIRD PARTY COMPLAINT, RULE 16.1 SIMPLIFIED PROCEDURE

These standard instructions are for informational purposes only and do not constitute legal advice about your case. If you choose to represent yourself, you are bound by the same rules and procedures as an attorney.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- ◆ As of July 1, 2004, the JDF 601 case cover sheet is required by C.R.C.P. 16.1 Simplified Procedure for all District Civil (CV) actions filed on or after that date. This cover sheet must be filed with the complaint and any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party complaint.
- ◆ If you fail to file a Case Cover Sheet with such a pleading, you will be notified by the Court that you need to file a Case Cover Sheet and must then do so within the time stated by the Court, or the Court may impose sanctions, including striking this pleading.
- ◆ If you have a disability and need a reasonable accommodation to access the courts, please contact your local ADA Coordinator. Contact information can be obtained from the following website:

STEPS TO COMPLETE CIVIL CASE COVER SHEET

Step 1: Complete Caption.

- Identify the name of the county and court address where you plan to file your papers.
- Identify the name of the Plaintiff(s) and Defendant(s). If you have multiple Plaintiffs or Defendants, list only the first Plaintiff or Defendant.
- Complete the identifying information for the party or attorney completing the Case Cover Sheet.
- Once you file your papers, the Court will assign a case number and division and will indicate such on the Case Cover Sheet.
- If a case number has already been assigned, you must still complete the Case Cover Sheet and insert the case number.

Step 2: Complete Item 2.

- Check the applicable box if the Simplified Procedure applies to your case.
- or
- Check the applicable box if the Simplified Procedure does not apply to your case. If you have checked this box, you must also check one of the three boxes within this section to identify why the Simplified Procedure does not apply. The three options are identified below:
 - Some civil actions are automatically excluded and are not subject to C.R.C.P. 16.1. If you are filing a class action, domestic relations case, juvenile case, mental health case, probate case, water law case, forcible entry and detainer, Rule 106 or 120, petition to seal criminal record, distraint warrant, county court or municipal appeal, or a writ of habeas corpus civil action your case is not subject to the simplified procedure.
 - or
 - Simplified Procedures does not apply if you are seeking a monetary judgment for more than $100,000.00 against any other party, including attorney fees, penalties or punitive damages, but excluding interest and costs, as well as the value of any equitable relief sought.
- or

- Simplified Procedures does not apply if another party has previously indicated in a Civil Case Cover Sheet that the Simplified Procedure under C.R.C.P 16.1 does not apply to your case.

Step 3: Complete Item 3. (Optional)

- You can request a jury trial and pay the requisite fee at this time. If you check this box, your filing fee must include the jury demand fee. Please refer to C.R.C.P. 38 for your right to request a jury trial and waiving the right to a jury trial.
- If you are making a jury demand pursuant to §38-1-106, C.R.S., a jury demand fee is not required for a jury of six freeholders. However, if you are requesting a jury of freeholders in excess of six (including alternates) an advance deposit of $50.00 per extra juror for one day of service is required. For example, if you demand a jury of 12, an advance deposit of $300.00 ($50.00 x 6) is required.

Step 4: Sign and Date Civil Case Cover Sheet.

- The party or the Attorney, if applicable, must date and sign the Civil Case Cover Sheet.
