- A party lacked the physical capacity to consummate it by sexual intercourse, and the other party did not know about the incapacity when it was solemnized.
- A party was underage and did not have the consent of their parents or guardian or judicial approval.

- One party entered it in reliance upon a fraudulent act or representation of the other party, which fraudulent act or representation goes to the essence of the marriage or civil union.
- One or both parties entered it under duress exercised by the other party or a third party, whether or not such other party knew of such exercise of duress.
- One or both parties entered the contract as a jest or dare.
- The marriage or civil union is prohibited by law, including:
 - One of the parties was already in a marriage or civil union;
 - A marriage between an ancestor and a descendant or siblings (whether sharing one parent or both).
 - A marriage where one party is the aunt or uncle to the other, whether the relationship is by the half or the whole blood, except as to marriages permitted by the established customs of aboriginal cultures;
 - It was void by the law of where it was contracted.
