The above judgment creditor intends on executing a collection action against you. If you have experienced financial hardship due to the COVID-19 emergency, directly or indirectly, you have the right to suspend temporarily this extraordinary collection action. The suspension is effective until November 1, 2020, or February 1, 2021, if the State of Colorado extends the period of suspension.

To exercise this right, you must notify the judgment creditor that you are experiencing financial hardship due to the COVID-19 emergency. You can provide this notice by phone call or by writing to the creditor at the address shown in this notice. Your notification to the judgment creditor must include your full name (first and last), the case number identified above and at least one (1) additional piece of the following information: your date of birth, social security number, physical and mailing addresses, or the judgment creditor's internal account number or identifier, if different from the case number designated above. You are not required to provide documentation to support your request.

Note: Requesting the temporary suspension of this extraordinary debt collection action is not a waiver to the obligation to pay or debt forgiveness, Interest may continue to accrue on the judgment debt even while the extraordinary collection actions are suspended.

You may enter into a voluntary repayment plan with the judgment creditor, but you are not required to do so.
