Eleventh Judicial District begins accepting credit card payments online

CANON CITY, Colo. – Starting today, March 25, at 5:00 p.m., the 11th Judicial District (Chaffee, Custer, Fremont and Park counties) will begin accepting Visa, MasterCard and debit card payments online for certain fines and fees, as well as restitution.

Online payments can be made seven days a week from 5:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. at <https://www.jbits.courts.state.co.us/cjop/> and by selecting the link for the appropriate county within the district.

“We decided to begin accepting credit card payments as a convenience to the community,” said Chief Judge Charles Barton. “We are hopeful that providing people with the ability to pay court fines and fees online with credit cards will help them make payments in a timely manner without having to come to the courthouse.”

Individuals may access their case and fine information online using a case number, name, or ticket number search function. Cases with active warrants, suppressed cases, juvenile cases and cases that have been referred to private collections cannot be paid online.
