

news

Colorado Judicial Branch
Mary J. Mullarkey, Chief Justice
Gerald Marroney, State Court Administrator

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 12, 2010

Contact: Robert McCallum or Jon Sarché
303-837-3633 or 303-837-3644

Sixth Judicial District begins accepting credit card payments online

DURANGO, Colo. – Starting today, April 12, 2010, the Sixth Judicial District (La Plata, Archuleta and San Juan counties) will begin accepting Visa, MasterCard and debit card payments online for certain fines and fees, as well as restitution.

Online payments can be made seven days a week from 5:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. at <https://www.jbits.courts.state.co.us/cjop/> and by selecting the link for the appropriate county within the district.

Individuals may access their case and fine information online using a case number, name, or ticket number search function. Cases with active warrants, suppressed cases, juvenile cases and cases that have been referred to private collections cannot be paid online.

For more information contact the Archuleta County Court Clerk's Office at 970-264-5932, La Plata County Court Clerk's Office at 970-247-2304 or the San Juan County Court Clerk's Office at 970-387-5790.