Eighth Judicial District to begin accepting credit card payments online

FORT COLLINS, Colo. – The Eighth Judicial District today announced that it will begin accepting Visa and Master Card payments online effective May 1, 2009, for certain fines and fees, as well as restitution, in Larimer County. The online payment system for the Jackson County Combined Court is expected to be available by May 7, 2009.

Online payments can be made seven days a week from 5:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. at <https://www.jbits.courts.state.co.us/cjop/>. Once you have entered the payment system select court location Larimer County for all Fort Collins cases or Larimer County- Loveland for all Loveland cases.

“As a convenience to our community and to improve our best business practices, we are now accepting online credit card payments,” said Eighth Judicial District Administrator Scott Courtney. “We believe that by offering this service it will assist those making payments to do so in a more timely and convenient manner.”

Individuals may access their case and fine information using a case number, name, or ticket number search function. Cases with active warrants, suppressed cases, juvenile cases, and cases that have been referred to private collections cannot be paid online.

Credit cards will continue to be accepted in-person at the Larimer Combined Courts office located in Fort Collins and Loveland Courts and Police Building located in Loveland, as well as in the Jackson County Combined Court in Walden.

Please direct all questions to the Larimer Combined Court Collections office at (970) 498-6139.
