The Weld County Combined Court Information Center introduces Ask-An-Attorney Clinics

GREELEY, Colo. – The Weld County Combined Court Information Center today announced a new, free clinic to help people representing themselves in non-criminal court proceedings.

Beginning in April 2014, the Court Information Center will host monthly Ask-An-Attorney Clinics from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. Dates for 2014 are April 9, May 27, June 24, July 29, Aug. 26, Sept. 30, Oct. 28, Nov. 25 and Dec. 30. The Ask-An-Attorney Clinic is an opportunity for self-represented litigants to sit down with a local attorney to ask general questions about non-criminal legal issues at no cost. Each one-on-one session is 15 minutes in length and an appointment is required. Local volunteer attorneys are coordinated through Weld County Legal Services.

The Court Information Center provides self-represented litigants with information about court procedures and logistics, assistance in selecting and completing the correct forms, and information about educational sessions and materials. The Center is free to the public every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Thursdays by appointment only. The Center is located on the first floor of the Centennial Building at 915 10th Street in Greeley.

For more information about the Ask-An-Attorney Clinics or the Court Information Center, contact Mary Athey, the Self-Represented Litigant Coordinator, at mary.athey@judicial.state.co.us or 970-475-2410.
