People who work in the court wrote this story for kids like you. The court is the building where the judges and other people work, the hearings (or meetings) are held, and all those papers are filed. We wrote this story because what happens in court can make a big difference in your life. There are lots of people working very hard for you.

Remember, you can always ask questions if you are confused or afraid of what goes on!

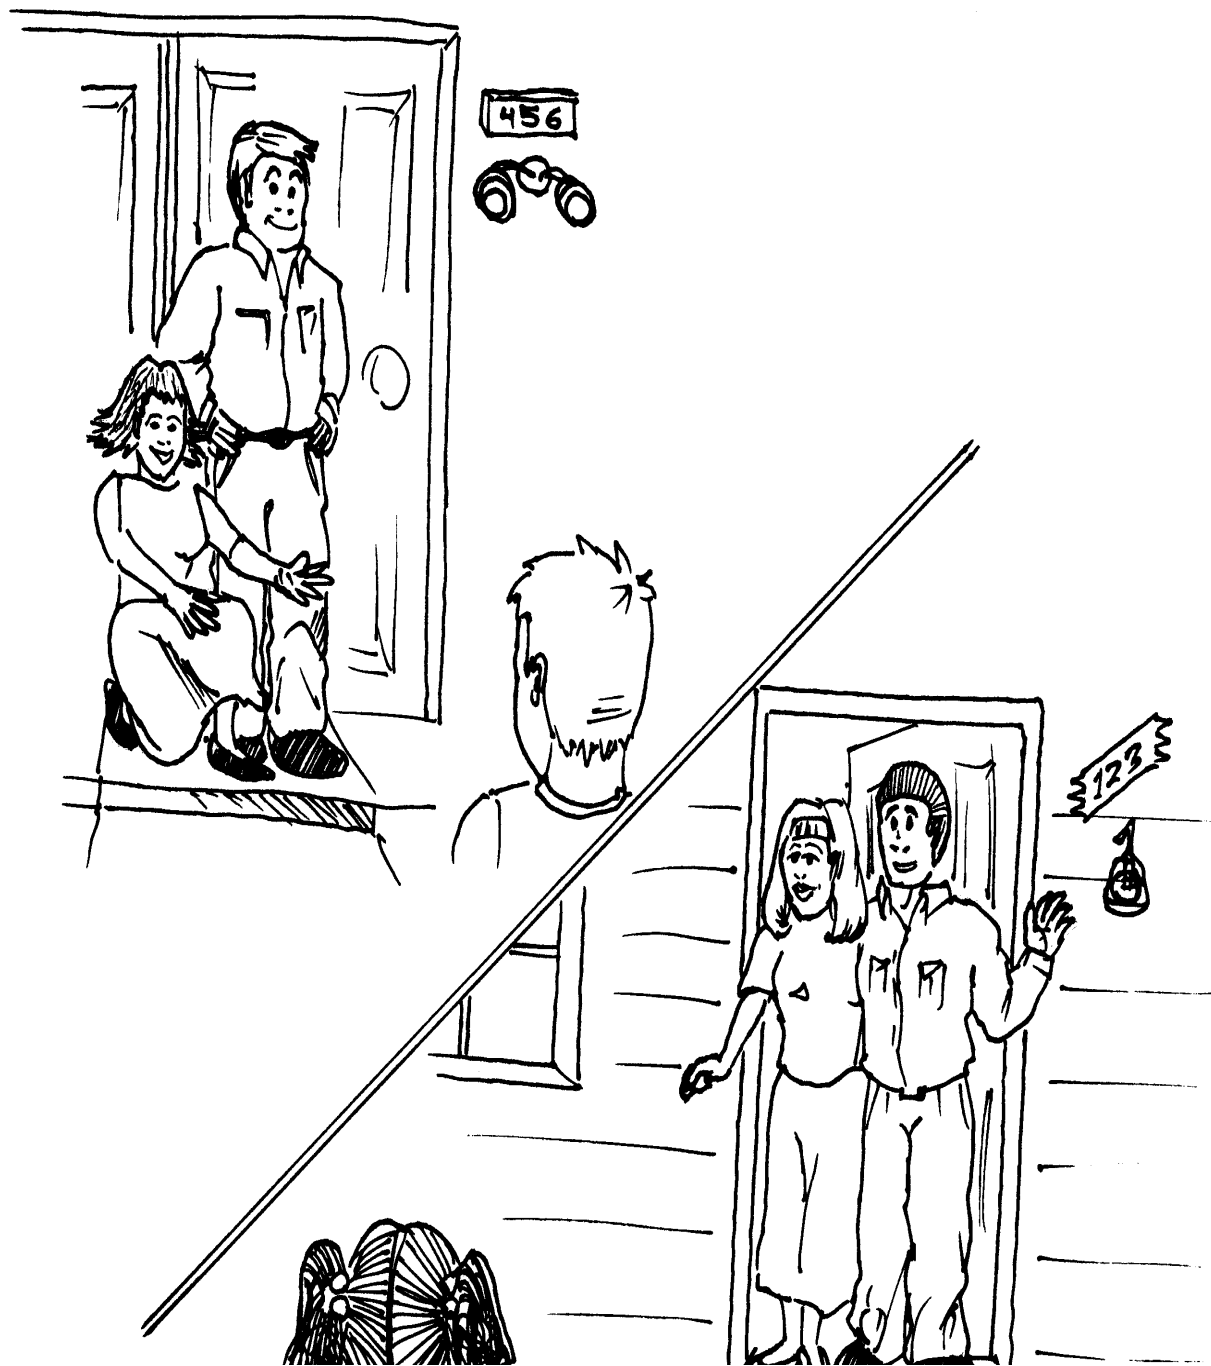

Sammy and Maria's families don't know how to take care of them.

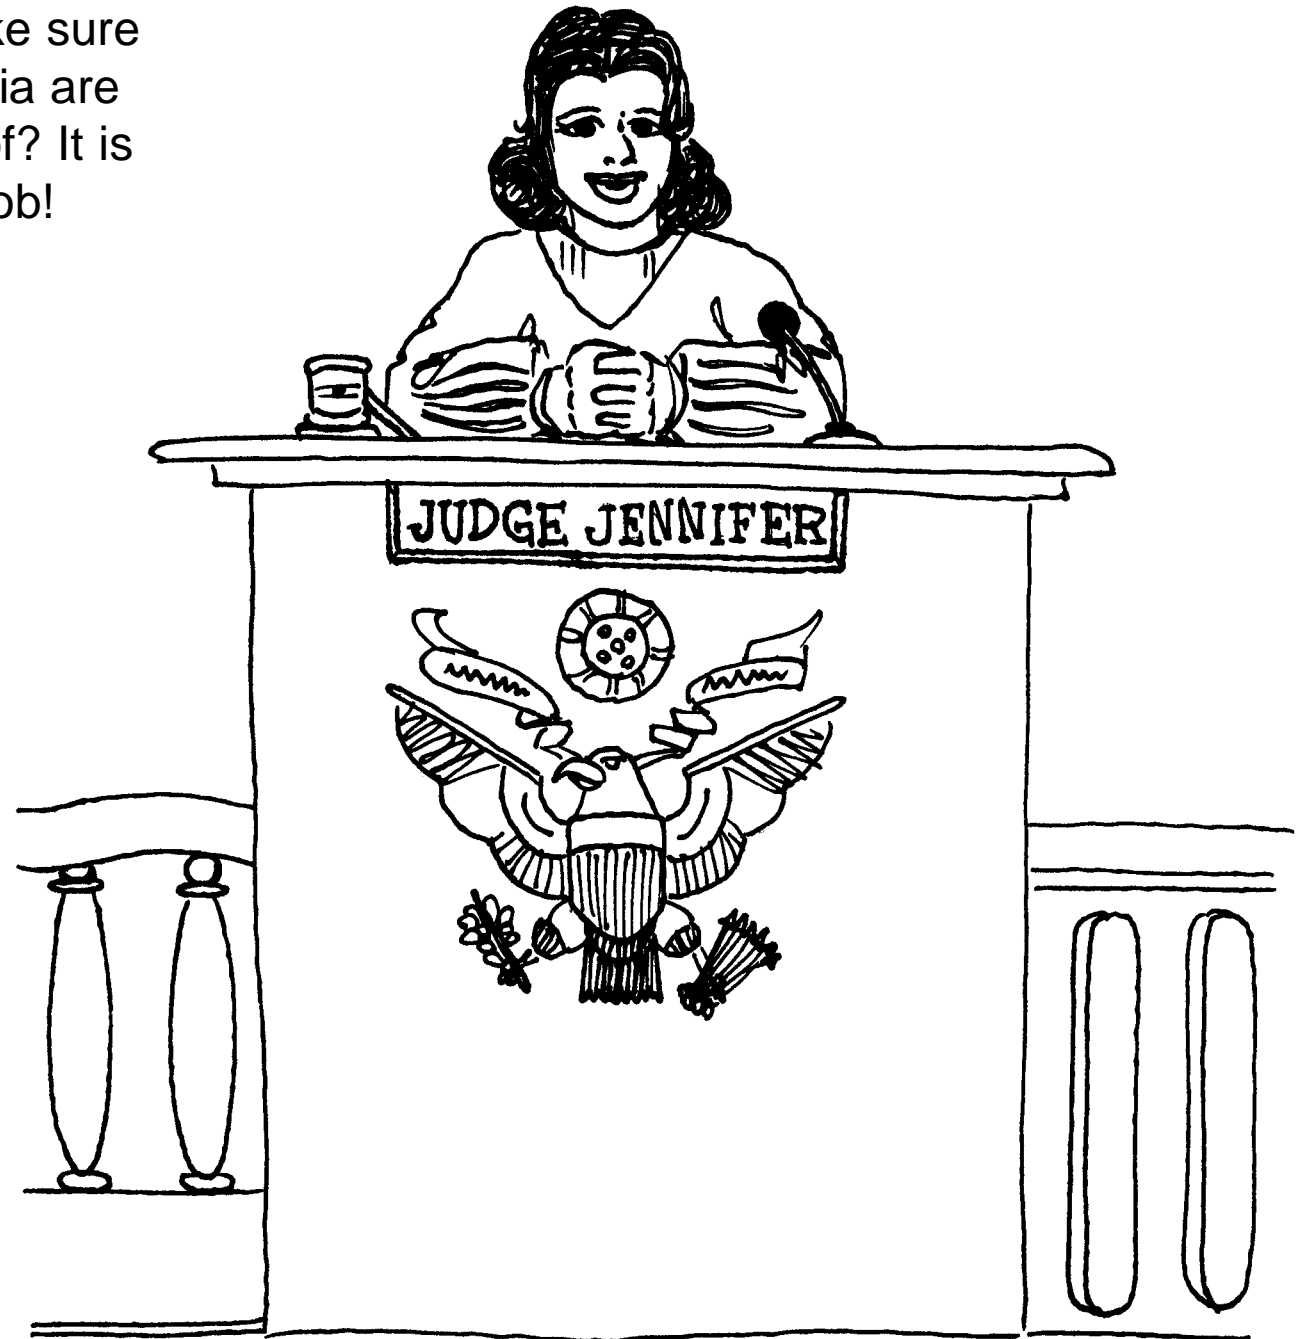

This is not their fault.
But sometimes Maria and Sammy feel bad about it.

Sammy and Maria
may go to live with other people.

Whose job is it to make sure that Sammy and Maria are safe and taken care of? It is Judge Jennifer's job!

Judge Jennifer works in a court building and wears a special black robe.

Connect the dots to finish the court building.

Judge Jennifer has many helpers. Some of them are:

Lisa the Lawyer

Fran the Foster Parent

Carl the CASA

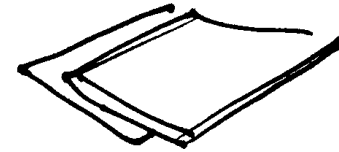

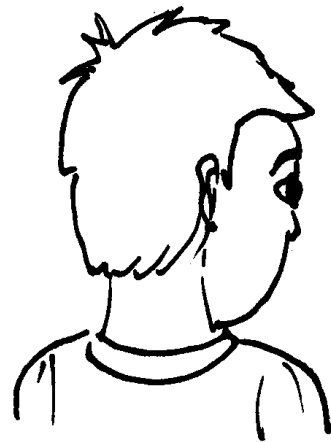

Tomás the Therapist

Carol the Caseworker

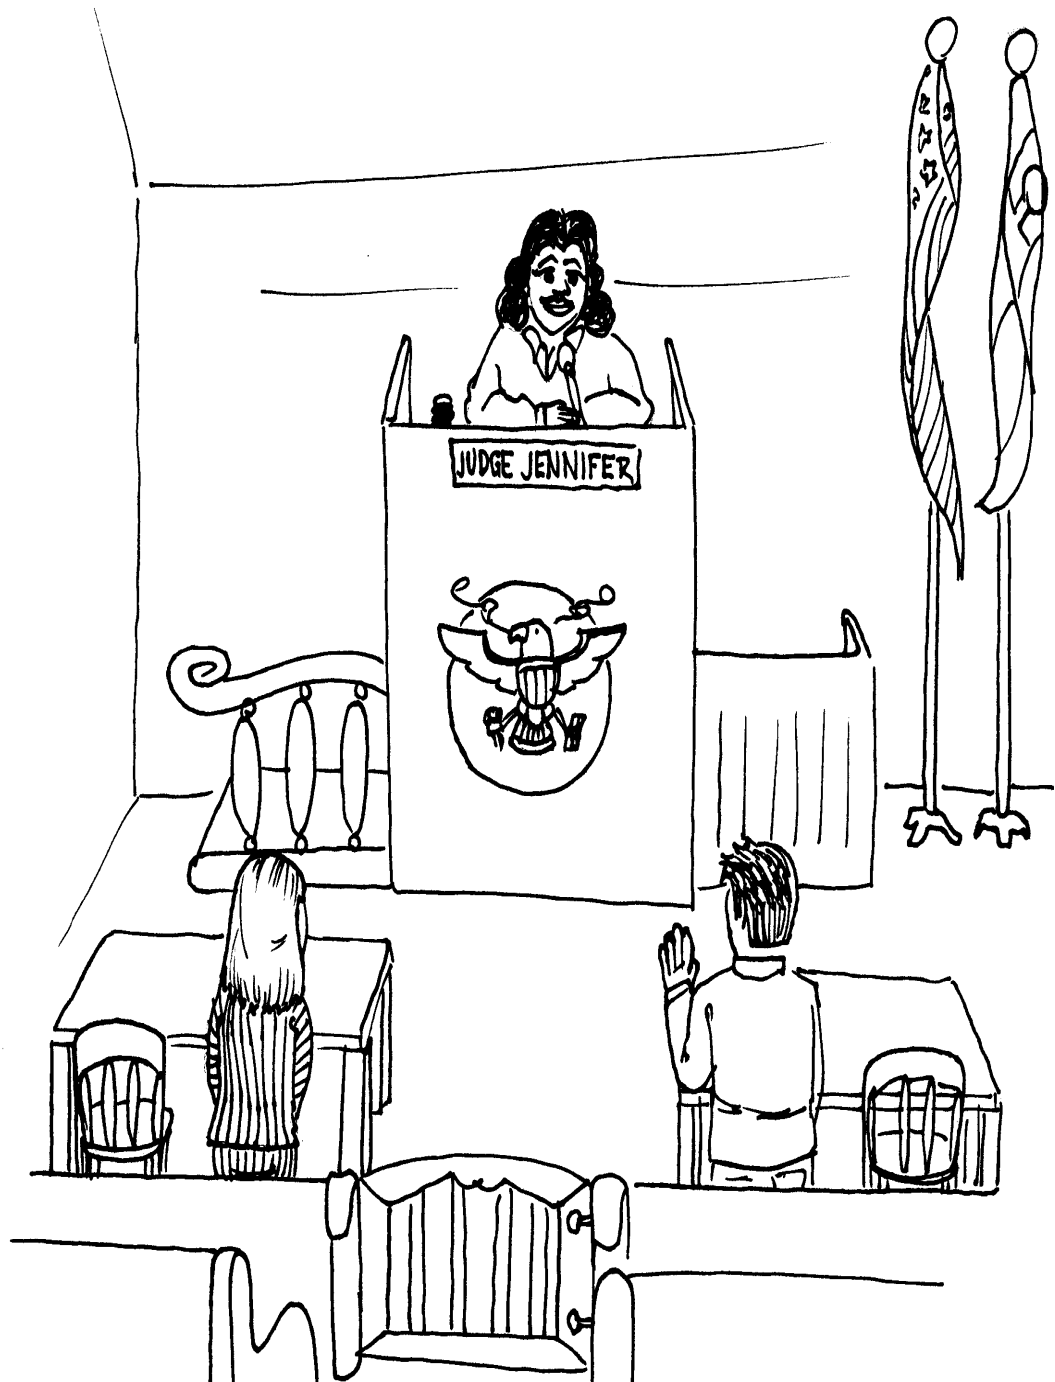

Carol the Caseworker comes to see how Sammy and Maria are doing. She talks to other people about them too.

Carol the Caseworker helps Sammy and Maria's families.

Judge Jennifer and her helpers work hard to see where Sammy and Maria should live.

Maria and Sammy like to talk to Judge Jennifer's helpers.
