7.A.2. – Class Descriptions – The State Court Administrator, or designee, shall prepare written descriptions for every class in the classification plan. The descriptions shall be based on sound, systematic occupational analysis and position evaluation, and shall contain elements sufficient to distinguish the various classes including at least the qualifications and general duties for each class of positions.

The State Court Administrator, or designee, shall provide reasonable notice to all affected employees of modifications to the classification plan. An employee who is adversely affected by modifications to the classification plan may initiate a reclassification appeal under the provisions of rule 9, except that an employee who is subject to layoff as a result of a decision under this rule shall have no right to appeal, review or grievance.

7.A.5. – Assignment of Duties – The inclusion of specific duties in a class description shall not be construed to limit the power of the Administrative Authority to assign other related duties to a specific position, including an at-will position. 8.D. – Effect of Reclassification Action – For an incumbent in a reclassified position the individual salary adjustment shall be treated as a transfer, promotion or demotion in accordance with Rule 13. A trial service or probationary period is not required for the action of reclassification.

8.E. – Effective Date of Reclassification Action – The effective date of any position reclassification shall be the first working day of the pay period following the approval by the State Court Administrator, or designee, or the ruling by the reclassification review board, except that the effective date may be deferred pending availability of funds. 9.C. – Time Limit – The appeal must be filed within 30 calendar days after official notice is given by the State Court Administrator, or designee, of the modification or reclassification complained of, or within 30 calendar days after the State Court Administrator, or designee, fails to meet the decision deadline under Rule 8.C.

9.D. – Transfer of Jurisdiction – The filing of an appeal of the State Court Administrator's, or designee's, failure to make a timely decision under Rule 8.C. shall transfer jurisdiction for the reclassification review from the State Court Administrator, or designee, to the Reclassification Review Board.

9.E. – Content of the Appeal – The appeal must be made in writing setting forth the reasons why the employee believes the State Court Administrator's, or designee's, decision concerning modification of the classification plan or concerning reclassification to be in error, or the reasons why the requested reclassification would be appropriate, and shall include appropriate documentation in support of the employee's statement.

The State Court Administrator, or designee, shall deliver a copy of all such materials to the appealing employee.

9.F.4. – The Reclassification Review Board shall review the appeal in summary fashion on the basis of the written material filed by all parties as required by this rule, except that the Board in its discretion may require any party to provide additional written information and may grant oral argument by the State Court Administrator, or designee, and by the appealing employee upon the Board's own motion or upon timely request by either the State Court Administrator, or designee, or the appealing employee. If the Board permits oral argument, each side shall be allowed to argue its position, but not to present testimony, introduce evidence, or cross-examine. The Board shall have the power to question the parties during oral argument and to request additional information from the parties to assist in its decision.

9.F.5. – The Reclassification Review Board shall make its decision within 30 days of receipt of an appeal, unless oral argument is permitted by the Board, in which case the Board shall make its decision within 30 days after oral argument.

9.F.6. – The decision of the Reclassification Review Board shall be final and shall not be subject to the appeal, review or grievance procedures set forth in these rules.

The Director of Human Resources may approve a promotional increase which exceeds 20% above the minimum but not to exceed range maximum of the new range where it is substantiated that unusual conditions or qualifications exist.

“Unusual Conditions” are defined as where there is a documented shortage in the market and recruitment or other retention difficulty.

When an employee is demoted, the employee's pay shall under no circumstances result in an increase and will be adjusted as follows:

13.B.3.a. – Non-Disciplinary Demotion – If an employee is demoted involuntarily for non-disciplinary reasons in lieu of layoff, the employee shall be assigned to the new salary range at their present salary, except that if the present salary exceeds the range maximum for the salary range, the range maximum shall be assigned.

exceeds the salary range maximum for the new classification, the employee's salary will be frozen.

13.B.3.c.ii. – If the employee's salary after the position downgrade is within the range of the lower salary range, the employee shall be eligible for wage survey increases and performance increases in accordance with these rules.

13.B.3.c.iii. – If an employee's salary has been frozen under section i. above, the employee shall not be eligible for wage survey increases until adjustments of the compensation plan cause the frozen salary to fall within the salary range for the new classification or until three years from the date of position downgrade. The employee may, however, be eligible for pay for performance consistent with the annual compensation plan. If the employee's salary does not fall within the new salary range after this three-year period, the employee will be assigned to the salary range maximum for the classification, effective the first of the month following the expiration of the three year period.

13.B.3.iv. – Voluntary Position Downgrade and Demotion in Lieu of Layoff – If an employee's position is downgraded voluntarily or for reasons of demotion in lieu of layoff, the employee shall be assigned to the new salary range at their same present salary, except if the present salary exceeds the salary range maximum for the new classification the salary range maximum shall be assigned. The salary change shall be effective the first of the month following the position downgrade.

Under no circumstances may a disciplinary demotion result in a salary increase.

13.C. – Salary Adjustment from Salary Studies – When the salary range assigned to a class is changed because of alignment studies or wage surveys, the pay of all members of the class shall be changed by the percentage of change from the old range midpoint to the new range midpoint if the difference between midpoints is 5% or greater. If the employee's present salary exceeds the new salary range maximum, the employee's salary will be frozen and the employee shall not be eligible for wage survey increases until adjustments of the compensation plan cause the frozen salary to fall within the salary range for the new salary range or until three years from the date of the salary range change. The employee may, however, be eligible for pay for performance consistent with the annual compensation plan. If the employee's salary does not fall within the new pay salary range after this three-year period, the employee will be assigned to the salary range maximum for the classification, effective the first of the month following the expiration of the three-year period. Out-of-cycle salary range realignment increases will be effective on July 1st of the next fiscal year with the exception of realignment increases necessitated by the significant increase in job duties of the class, in which case, the increase will be effective the first day of the following month, subject to availability of funds, and with the prior approval of the State Court Administrator, or designee.

13.D. – Simultaneous Personnel Actions – The State Court Administrator, or designee, shall establish procedures for individual salary adjustment when two or more actions affecting pay occur on the same effective date.

Paid Time Off and Extended Sick Leave

Years of Service (based on Accrual Start Date)	PTO Accrual Rate/mo*	Extended Sick Leave Accrual Rate*	Max PTO Accrual	Maximum Extended Sick Leave Accrual
1st Year	14	4	168	360

26.A.1.b. – A part-time employee shall earn and accrue extended sick and paid time off on a prorated basis. Part-time employees may accrue leave up to the limits established in section A.1.a. of this rule. If the employee’s status changes affecting the percentage of FTE, the accrual rates for paid time off and extended sick leave will change effective the first of the month following the change in status.

26.A.1.c. – A year of service for purposes of this rule shall be 12 months of continuous employment with the State of Colorado, which includes continuous employment in any State of Colorado position, and shall be deemed completed on the first day of the calendar month following one year from the date of initial employment, except that if that year is completed on the first working day of the calendar month, that day shall be the completion date. Time spent working on a Colorado Judicial Department employment contract may be included in determining the initial employment date as long as there was no break in service longer than 90 days prior to appointment to the classified position. Periods of interruption in leave accrual shall result in adjustment of the length of service date provided in these rules.

26.A.1.d. – A former employee who returns to work for the Judicial Department shall earn and accrue paid time off and extended sick leave treating the date of return as the date of initial employment, except that employees who return by reinstatement, or by reemployment as defined in these rules shall have their prior paid time off earning and accrual rates restored.

However, any unused paid time off or extended sick leave in excess of the maximum remaining on February 1 at 12:01am shall be forfeited. Employees shall make every effort to use excess accumulated paid time off as it is earned throughout the year in accordance with the conditions for paid time off usage provided by these rules to avoid exceeding the allowed maximum at the end of the year. Employees are encouraged to maintain a minimum balance of 80 hours of paid time off to allow flexibility in the event of an illness, injury or other unforeseeable absence.

26.A.1.h. – Administrative authorities and supervisors shall work with employees to grant the use of accrued paid time off throughout the year to avoid the loss of accrued paid time off by employees under their supervision. Employees shall monitor their accrued PTO throughout the year to avoid losing hours that extend beyond the maximum annual accrual at the end of the year.

When the error is detected (regardless of where or how the error was made), any excess leave shall be removed from the employee's PTO and/or ESL balances. If an existing leave balance is insufficient to reduce the entire number of hours owed, the balance shall be reduced in amounts over a period of time to be determined by the Division of Human Resources and the Administrative Authority in consultation with the affected employee.

If the employee's leave balance exceeds their maximum accrual hours, the reduction of the leave balance should occur before the year-end leave conversion on January 31. If an over-accrual error goes undetected for more than three years, the maximum liability for reduction in hours shall be limited to the total amount of the over accruals for the last three years.

26.A.2.a. – An employee may use paid time off for any reason. Use of paid time off must be authorized by the appropriate Administrative Authority or such authority's designee, who may establish periods during which no paid time off may be taken if necessary to maintain the efficient function of the courts, except under circumstances of unforeseen illness or injuries.

The subsequent completed medical certification form must be provided to verify the serious health condition within the time period specified or the employee’s ability to access extended sick leave will be delayed.

The Administrative Authority or designee may deny the use of paid time off or extended sick leave if the employee fails to provide such medical evidence, or if the investigation supports a reasonable belief that the employee is improperly using or is abusing paid time off or extended sick leave. Workers’ compensation leave and FML shall run concurrently with any workers’ compensation absence as of the first absence following the date of injury.

Once the employee reaches maximum medical improvement, if the employee has a continuing medical need due to the on-the-job injury and FML has not been exhausted, the employee may be eligible for FML as set forth in Rule 26.N, and extended sick leave as set forth in Rule 26.A.3.

Employees whose two thirds wage replacement amount exceeds the State Division of Workers Compensation maximum benefit rate and who ordinarily would not receive the full two thirds workers’ compensation wage replacement shall be allowed to use accrued extended sick leave, then paid time off (if available) when extended sick leave is exhausted, to make up the remaining two thirds payment. Such leave shall be reported to payroll for employee to receive pay.

If the employee is unable to return to work after exhausting extended sick leave and paid time off and has been afforded all rights to FML and medically certified leave, and no reasonable accommodation is available for the employee to return to work, the Administrative Authority may, in consultation with the Human Resources Division, proceed according to the provisions for involuntary termination under Rule 32.

An employee may only use accrued extended sick leave and paid time off to supplement workers’ compensation wage replacement. An employee is not eligible to use compensatory time off to supplement workers’ compensation wage replacement.

26.E.2.e. – Workers’ Compensation Leave, Wage Replacement Provisions and Leave Without Pay – If an employee does not choose to supplement workers’ compensation wage replacement income by using extended sick leave, or paid time off (if available) when extended sick leave is exhausted, or if an employee has exhausted extended sick leave and paid time off, the designated coordinator shall report the entire missed time for the on-the-job injury as “workers’ compensation leave,” “FML” (or “medically certified leave”, if applicable)”, and “leave without pay” to run concurrently on the monthly leave record.

If the employee is unable to return to work after exhausting all accrued extended sick leave and paid time off, and has been afforded all rights to FML or medically certified leave, and no reasonable accommodation is available for the employee to return to work, the Administrative Authority may, in consultation with the Human Resources Division, proceed according to provisions for involuntary termination under Rule 32.

These and other benefits shall not be adversely affected except that retirement service credit and final average salary shall be determined in accordance with PERA rules and regulations.

26.F. – Administrative Leave With Pay – The Administrative Authority may grant paid leave to employees for reasons determined to be for the good of the state, including, but not limited to, participate in community volunteer activities, and to participate in official activities of employee organizations.

An exception may be made if the employee is unable to return to work due to injury or circumstances beyond the employee’s control if the employee notifies the employer as soon as practicable, but prior to the next scheduled work day. If such exception applies, additional leave shall be granted. Certified disaster volunteers of the American Red Cross may be granted up to 5 work days of paid administrative leave to respond to a disaster. Written documentation of the dates and times volunteer services were rendered shall be provided by the employee to the Administrative Authority upon return to work.

26.G. – Victim Protection Leave – Victim protection unpaid leave shall be granted for up to 24 work hours (prorated for part-time employees) per calendar year for victims of stalking, Victim Protection Leave is available for the following purposes: to seek a civil protective order; to obtain medical or mental health treatment for the employee and/or the employee's children; to secure safe housing; or to obtain legal assistance. All information related to a request for such held confidential and maintained in a separate file other than the employee's personnel file with limited access.

26.H. – Court Closure Leave – Court closure leave with pay may be granted by the Administrative Authority when the court is closed due to weather or other emergency reasons. Such leave may only be granted for employees who are physically present or scheduled to be physically present at the time of the closure and shall not apply to those who are either not scheduled to work or are on leave at the time of the closure.

26.J. – Furlough Leave

26.L.2. – Of this amount of time, a maximum of 15 working days in any calendar year shall be granted as military training leave with pay, which shall not be charged as any part of paid time off or other compensatory leave.

26.L.3. – After military leave with pay has been exhausted, military leave without pay shall be granted for the entire period of service plus any period of additional service imposed by law up to a total maximum of five years. Such leave is not a break in service.

26.L.4. – At the request of the employee, accrued paid time off shall be used before the employee is placed on active military leave without pay, regardless of the employee's length of service.

26.L.5. – The employee must provide to the administrative authority reasonable advanced notice of the need for military leave, unless notice is impossible, unreasonable or precluded by military necessity, and provide a copy of the official, written military orders in order to establish eligibility for protection under USERRA.

26.L.6. – Prior to returning to work, an employee on military leave shall submit an application for reinstatement and provide a copy of his or her honorary discharge or other

(c.) An employee may continue benefits coverage or cancel benefits coverage while on leave without pay and upon reinstatement shall be entitled to reinstatement of benefits coverage as well.

(d.) Reinstated employees shall have no adjustments in computing length of service dates or seniority as a result of military leave taken.

26.M. – Short Term Disability

26.M.1. – All employees may apply for disability payments. Employees who are approved by the short-term disability carrier, will receive disability payments. At the discretion of the Administrative Authority, employees may be granted leave without pay as provided for in Rule 26.I. Family and medical leave, as defined in Rule 26, may run concurrently with leave related to a short term disability. Employees shall not use paid time off or extended sick leave to be paid for the same period of time for which they are receiving disability payments.

26.M.2. – Disability payments will not commence until after the required waiting period and all extended sick leave has been exhausted.

26.M.3. – Short-term disability benefits are available for up to one-hundred and eighty days. The one-hundred eighty days includes any waiting period imposed by the insurance carrier. An employee must apply for short-term disability benefits at the onset of the illness or injury or at least 30 days prior to the exhaustion of all accrued extended sick leave. The employee must notify the Administrative Authority at the time that a benefit application is submitted.

26.N. – Family and Medical Leave

26.N.1. – Purpose – Family and medical leave is a period of unpaid leave of absence that is granted to an eligible employee under circumstances and conditions specified below. Family and medical leave provide time off work, but do not provide for pay continuation during that time. Any continuation of pay during a period of family and medical leave will occur only if a pay continuation provision also applies during that time.

26.N.2. – Eligibility – To be eligible for family and medical leave, an employee must have been employed at least a total of 12 months with the State of Colorado on the date the leave is to commence, and must have worked at least 1,250 hours during the 12 months preceding the date on which the leave is to commence. The 12 months of total employment need not be consecutive months, and employment for any part of a week counts as a week of employment.

26.N.3. – Granting of Family and Medical Leave – Employees shall provide proper medical certification, including additional medical certificates and fitness-to-return certificates as set forth in these rules. If the employee does not provide the required medical certificates, the Family Medical Leave request may be denied. An eligible employee will be granted family and medical leave for one or more of the following reasons:

- (a.) Inability of the employee to perform the functions of his/her position due to a serious health condition.
- (b.) Attendance at birth of the employee's own child or at the birth of a child to be placed with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- (c.) Bonding time with the employee's newborn or newly placed child if within 12 months after birth or placement;
- (d.) Absences which are required before the placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care as necessary for the placement to proceed;
- (e.) Serious health condition of employee's child, including adult children not living in the employee's home, spouse, domestic partner or partner in a civil union, parent, including parents not living in the employees home, OR the serious health condition of a person living in the employee's household for whom the employee is the primary caregiver, if such leave is medically necessary for the care of that person, child, spouse or parent or to assist in their recovery.
- (f.) Qualifying exigency due to a spouse, domestic partner or partner in a civil union, child or parent being on or being called to active duty in the Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves for deployment to a foreign country in support of a contingency operation. Please refer to 26.N.10.(h.) for a list of activities covered under qualifying exigency.

- (g.) Care of employee's spouse, domestic partner or partner in a civil union, child, parent or next of kin who is a member of the Armed Service, including the National Guard and the Reserves or covered veteran within five years of service, with a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty while on active duty or which existed before the beginning of the service member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty while on active duty. A covered veteran is one who has been discharged or released under conditions other than "dishonorable" within five years of the day the employee first takes leave for his or her care.

26.N.4. – Maximum Length of Family and Medical Leave – With the exception of leave taken to care for an injured military service member, the maximum combined total time allowed for family and medical leave is 12 work weeks in an event year basis, except in certain circumstances where both spouses work for the Judicial Department. A total of 26 workweeks of leave (including any other approved family and medical leave in a single 12 month period) are available to care for an injured or ill family member serving in the Armed Forces, as provided under this rule.

A workweek for full-time employees is 40 hours in an established seven-day period. For part-time employees a workweek is a proportional amount of 40 hours based on the number of hours normally worked in an established seven-day period.

Where both spouses work for the Judicial Department, the spouses are limited to 12 workweeks of leave in total during an event year for leave that is taken for the birth of a child, for the placement for adoption or foster care of a child, for the care of a child after birth or placement or for the care of an employee's parent with a serious health condition. Spouses are limited to an aggregate total of 26 workweeks of leave in a single 12 month period (including any other family and/or medical leave during that same period) for the care of a seriously injured or ill family member serving in the Armed Forces, as provided under this rule.

26.N.5. – Substitution of Paid Leave– Periods of family and medical leave may run concurrently with any applicable accrued leave and/or any payment continuation plan to which the employee is eligible. Employees are required to use all available accrued leave, prior to taking leave without pay, as provided for under the Judicial Department's accrued leave plan. Family and medical leave is without pay when available pay-continuation benefits are exhausted or not accessible.

Paid time off and extended sick leave will accrue during periods of unpaid family and medical leave. Designated holidays are granted during unpaid family and medical leave.

26.N.6. – Request for Leave – The employee should inform the supervisor of the need for leave through the regular request and authorization for leave of absence process. If the necessity for the leave is foreseeable, the employee must notify the supervisor of the request for leave 30 days in advance, or as soon as practicable before the leave is to commence. If the leave is unforeseeable, the employee should give notice to the supervisor of the need for leave as soon as practicable under the circumstances, normally within one or two working days.

The Administrative Authority will designate leave, paid or unpaid, as qualifying for family and medical leave based on information provided by the employee. In the event that the Administrative Authority does not have sufficient information about the reason for an employee's use of requested leave, the Administrative Authority may inquire further to ascertain whether the requested leave may qualify as family and medical leave. Family and medical leave may be approved conditionally pending receipt of required documentation.

Upon a determination that the requested leave may qualify as family and medical leave, the supervisor will so notify the employee and will request that the employee complete and submit such additional forms as are required for family and medical leave. The employee must complete the forms and provide appropriate documentation, as may be requested, to verify the reasons for the leave. Any request for leave based on a serious health condition, whether it involves the employee or a family member, must be supported by appropriate medical certification.

Failure of the employee to provide notification and appropriate medical certification within 15 days may result in delayed approval. In all cases of leave for serious health condition, the Judicial Department reserves the right to request a second medical opinion at the department's expense, and may request additional certifications at 30-day intervals, if appropriate.

26.N.7. – Intermittent Leave/Reduced Work Schedule – In limited circumstances as described below, an employee who is eligible for family and medical leave may be permitted to work a reduced schedule of hours per workweek or hours per workday, or may take intermittent leave of separate blocks of time rather than one continuous period of time.

In cases of a serious health condition of the employee or a family member, such leave will be permitted only in circumstances when it is medically necessary. Appropriate medical certification will be required.

Where a reduced work schedule or intermittent leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the Judicial Department reserves the right to transfer the employee temporarily to another position with equivalent pay and benefits that better accommodates the employee's recurring periods of leave.

Employees who are eligible for family and medical leave to bond with a newborn or newly placed child must take the leave in a continuous block of time unless approved for intermittent leave or a reduced work schedule by the Administrative Authority. The Administrative Authority may review the individual circumstances involved in considering such requests, and may take into account the employee's length of service, number of requests, duties, work load and employee's job performance in making such decisions.

Any leave granted, based on a reduced work schedule or intermittent leave, will be treated in the same manner as other absences of family and medical leave.

26.N.8. – Continuation of Benefits – An employee on unpaid family and medical leave will be retained on the Judicial Department's group insurance plans the same as active employees, except that the employee must make arrangements with the person who processes payroll for the payment of the employee's portion of the insurance premiums. The Judicial Department will continue to pay the employer's share of the premiums throughout the unpaid family and medical leave period.

If the employee is able but does not return to work after the expiration of the leave, the employee will be required to reimburse the Judicial Department for any payment of employer shares of insurance premiums paid on their behalf by the Judicial Department during the family and medical leave.

26.N.9. – Return from Family and Medical Leave – An employee returning from family and medical leave will be reinstated to the same or an equivalent position. An equivalent position is one having virtually identical pay, benefits and working conditions and involving the same or substantially similar duties and responsibilities.

A completed and signed Fitness to Return to Work form is required to verify an employee's ability to return to work following any hospitalization, or absence of more than 3 days due to the employee's serious health condition, or for any absence where reasonable job safety concerns exist. Failure to provide this form may result in a delay of the employee's return to work. Once a health care provider has certified that an employee on family and medical leave is physically able to perform his or her work duties, the Administrative Authority or designee may require that the employee return to work by a specific date, unless continued time away from work is authorized under other provisions of these rules. Failure to report to work on the specified date may result in disciplinary action.

26.N.10. – Definitions – The following terms shall have the stated meanings:

RULE 27 - BENEFITS

27.A. – General Principles

This rule applies to all employees eligible for the State of Colorado benefits plan. The Colorado Judicial Department reserves the right to add, modify, or discontinue any state group benefits as deemed necessary.

27.B. – Employee Responsibilities

Employees are responsible for knowing, understanding, and adhering to these rules, plan documents for the terms and conditions of coverage, and eligibility and enrollment requirements in order to make timely and informed choices and will be responsible for the impact of those choices once made. Plan documents can be found on the State benefits website.

27.C. – Eligibility

Employees and their dependents must meet the eligibility requirements as defined in state law, plan documents, and applicable personnel rules to qualify for enrollment in the state group benefit plans.

27.D. – Coverage of Benefits

Coverage in group benefit plans is effective on the first day of the month following the date of hire or initial eligibility unless otherwise specified by the benefit contracts, law, or regulations. All coverage is prospective from the date of entry into the official benefit administration system or date of the qualifying event, whichever is later, except for initial coverage for new employees and newborn children. Elections made during open enrollment are effective the first day of the new plan year. Termination of coverage is subject to applicable law and regulation, plan documents, and contracts consistent with the below provisions.

27.D.1. - If at any time during the plan year, any dependent ceases to meet the eligibility criteria, coverage ends on the last day of the month in which that dependent becomes ineligible.

27.D.2. - Coverage in state group benefit plans is terminated on the last day of the month that employment ends.

27.E. – Payment of Contributions

Employees must make an irrevocable election for the plan year to have contributions deducted on a pre-tax or after-tax basis as defined by the State of Colorado Salary Reduction Plan, law and regulations, rule, and written directives. After an election has been made, employees can only change their contribution tax status during the open enrollment period. The employee's contribution is deducted from the employee's pay or, under certain circumstances, paid by personal payment for the selected state group benefit plan. Employees are responsible for benefit premiums from the effective date of the coverage. If it is discovered that benefit premiums in whole or in part were not withheld from the employee's paycheck, a deduction for the amount will be taken from subsequent paycheck(s) or paid by the employee through personal payment.

An enrolled employee who works or is on qualified leave one or more regularly scheduled, full workdays in a month is eligible for the full state benefit contribution. When an employee is on leave, the Judicial Department shall continue to pay the state contribution for noncontributory, fully paid benefits (e.g., life and short-term disability) as long as the employee remains on the payroll, regardless of status.

27.E.1. - During qualified leave or mandatory furlough, the employee contribution continues to be paid through payroll deduction and the Judicial Department continues to pay the state contribution.

27.E.2. - During unpaid leave, including periods of Short-Term Disability, the employee shall pay the total premium (employee and employer contributions) to the Judicial Department within the month of coverage, except as follows.

27.E.2.a. - During unpaid family and medical leave, the Judicial department shall continue to pay the state contribution as long as the employee continues to pay the employee contribution by the due date specified in the family and medical leave notice. If the employee fails to pay the employee contribution when due, coverage may be terminated but shall be reinstated upon return to work. In the event any contributions are owed upon the employee's return to work or should the employee fail to return to work, such contributions shall be collected from the employee. If the employee fails to return after the leave, any contributions due may be recovered as specified by federal regulations.

27.E.2.b. - While an employee is on voluntary furlough, medically certified leave, workers' compensation leave, or disciplinary suspension, the Judicial Department shall continue to pay the state contribution as long as the employee continues to pay the employee contribution in a timely manner. If the employee fails to pay the employee contribution by the due date, coverage may be terminated and the employee must wait for the next annual open enrollment to re-enroll.

27.E.3. - An employee on unpaid military leave will be retained on the Judicial Department's group insurance plans the same as active employees, except that the employee must make arrangements with the person who processes payroll for the payment of the employee's portion of the insurance premiums. The Judicial Department will continue to pay the employer's share of the premiums throughout the duration of unpaid military leave.

27.F. – Appeal Procedures

Appeals of eligibility for state group benefit plans must be submitted in writing to the state personnel director, at the address below, within 31 days of receipt of the ineligibility decision. Use of the standard "Colorado State Employees Group Benefits Eligibility Determination Appeal Form" found on the Director's website is required.

Department Of Personnel and Administration

Appeals of denied claims under any of the state group benefit plans shall follow the specific appeal process provided by the plan defined in the specific contract, plan document, summary plan description, or regulated entity. The provider will issue a final written decision in accordance with its process.

27.F.1. - Appeals of denied claims under fully insured plans are regulated by the State of Colorado Division of Insurance, and follow the plan's appeal process as defined in the contract and plan document.

27.F.2. - Appeals of denied claims under self-funded plans are not regulated by the State of Colorado Division of Insurance, and follow the third-party administrator's appeal process as defined in the contract and plan document.

27.G.1. -The program may request the participation of other persons if necessary to provide effective assistance to the employee.

27.G.2. - The limit per employee is one six-session course of counseling in a 12-month period. At the discretion of the counselor, additional sessions may be authorized.

PART 7 - EMPLOYEE APPRAISAL AND DISCIPLINE

RULE 28 - PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL OF EMPLOYEES

RULE 29 - CORRECTIVE AND DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

29.A. – Responsibility

29.A.1. – The responsibility for administering corrective and disciplinary actions shall be vested in the Administrative Authority. As the foremost Administrative Authority for the Judicial Department, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may take corrective or disciplinary action over any employee within the Judicial Department, consistent with these rules. At-will employees, including those listed under Rule 33.C.2 and Rule 34.B.2, are not subject to the procedures for corrective or disciplinary action set forth in this rule.

29.A.2. – In determining whether to administer a corrective or disciplinary action the Administrative Authority may consider the nature, extent, seriousness and effect of the act, error or omission committed; the type and frequency of previous undesirable behavior; the period of time that has elapsed since a prior offensive act; the previous performance appraisal of the employee; an assessment of information obtained from the employee; and any mitigating circumstances. The Administrative Authority will also consult with the Human Resources Division before administering any corrective or disciplinary action.

29.B. – Corrective Action

29.B.1. – A corrective action is a written warning, reprimand or censure which is taken to correct and improve an employee's job performance, and which does not affect the employee's current pay, status or tenure.

29.B.2. – Actions may be administered for the causes listed in section D.1. of this rule.

29.B.3. – Corrective actions may be administered concurrently with disciplinary actions.

29.B.4. – Except for those employees listed in Rule 33.C.2, prior to administering a corrective action the Administrative Authority shall meet with the employee involved to present information regarding the reasons for considering corrective action and to give the employee the opportunity to respond or present mitigating evidence. This meeting is not a formal hearing, and there shall be no right to legal counsel or other representative for any participant.

29.B.5. – A corrective action shall be in writing and shall contain the following information:

A corrective action may contain a statement that the action may be removed from the employee's personnel file after a specified period of time less than two years if the employee satisfactorily complies with the terms of the corrective action. A copy of any corrective action removed from an employee's personnel file may not be a basis for any subsequent corrective or disciplinary action, but may be considered as evidence that the employee was on notice of the problems identified therein. Any removed corrective action shall be clearly marked as such and maintained, along with the request for removal, by the Administrative Authority in a supervisory administrative file. The copy of the corrective action on file in the Human Resources Division will not be removed upon the same circumstances.

A probationary employee shall not be entitled to a pre-disciplinary meeting. A ten calendar day notification period shall be provided to the employee before a pre-disciplinary meeting can be held. If the employee chooses, the employee may respond in writing rather than attend the meeting. Any written response shall be received by the Administrative Authority by the scheduled meeting time.

29.C.6. – If the Administrative Authority is contemplating a disciplinary action but reasonable efforts to notify the employee of the pre-disciplinary meeting fail, the Administrative Authority shall send the pre-disciplinary action letter and notice of meeting to the last known address of the employee indicating the possible need to administer disciplinary action and the reasons therefore. If the employee fails to appear at the pre-disciplinary meeting or respond in writing by the scheduled meeting time, the Administrative Authority may proceed with the disciplinary action.

The employee must notify the Administrative Authority upon final resolution of any filed charges.

If the employee is not convicted, and if the employee has not otherwise been dismissed pursuant to the procedures of these rules, the employee shall be restored to the position and granted full pay and service credit for the period of suspension. If the employee is convicted, the employee shall not be compensated for the period of suspension. Conviction includes any plea or finding of guilt, including a plea of nolo contendere or acceptance of a deferred judgment and sentence. The Administrative Authority shall provide the employee with written notice of an administrative suspension and the reasons therefore by certified mail or by personal delivery to the employee. The employee shall be compensated for full pay and service credit for the period of suspension.

29.F. – Corrective and Disciplinary Action Limitations

29.F.1. – An employee may not be corrected or disciplined more than once for a single specific act or violation, but may be corrected or disciplined for each additional act or violation of the same or similar nature.

29.F.3. – Suspension of an employee without pay for the purpose of disciplinary action shall be limited to 30 calendar days, except as follows:

- (b.) In a case of disciplinary suspension pursuant to section E. of this rule, the period of suspension is not limited; and
- (c.) An employee who takes unauthorized paid time off without a reason acceptable to the Administrative Authority, shall be subject to suspension without pay for a period equal to twice the amount of leave used and will not be paid for such unauthorized leave.

PART 8 - SEPARATION FROM SERVICE

RULE 30 - RESIGNATIONS

30.A. – Resignation Procedure

30.A.4. – Either the Administrative Authority or the employee may request an exit interview.

30.A.5. – The effective date of resignation shall be deemed to be the employee's last day at work unless a different date is determined by agreement between the Administrative Authority and the employee.

30.E. – Reinstatement

30.E.1. – If within 90 days following resignation, a certified employee who resigned for non-disciplinary reasons is hired back into the same job classification in which the employee was employed at the time of the resignation, the employee shall have status as a reinstated employee, and shall regain the certification to that job classification.

30.E.2. – For a reinstated employee the rate of compensation shall be governed by provisions of Rule 11.B., length of service date shall be established in accordance with Rule 35.A.51, and paid time off shall be earned and accrued in accordance with rule 26.A.1.d..

RULE 31 - LAYOFF

31.A. – Separation by Layoff – A classified employee may be involuntarily separated from service in the classified system because of reorganization, including the abolishment of a position or class under rule 7.A.4., revision of staffing pattern under rule 7.B., or because of a decision to vacate a position or class due to lack of work or lack of funds under rule 7.B. The decision to layoff an employee shall be final and shall not be subject to the appeal, review or grievance procedures set forth in these rules.

31.B. – Administration of Layoff – The State Court Administrator, or designee, at any time may announce a need for layoffs for any court, probation department or office governed by these rules. Denver Probate, Denver Adult Probation and Denver Juvenile Probation, Denver District Court and Denver Juvenile Court shall be deemed as separate offices. When the State Court Administrator, or designee, has determined the number and classes of positions to be abolished, reduced, or vacated, the Administrative Authority shall administer any resulting layoff of employees in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

Upon the State Court Administrator's, or designee's, announcement for the need for layoffs, the administration of layoffs shall occur in order as below, starting with Rules 31.C. and 31.D. for districts that are deemed overstaffed in accordance with the rest of the state. If the reduction of employees affected by Rule 31.C. and Rule 31.D. sufficiently reduces the number of position required, transfer of certified staff may occur in order to redistribute staff statewide.

If further reductions are required after layoffs described in Rules 31.C. and 31.D, procedures in 31.F. and 31.G. shall be followed in any court, probation department or office where further reductions are needed.

31.C. – Voluntary Layoffs – Voluntary layoffs may be offered prior to the administration of involuntary layoffs. When the need for layoff is announced by the State Court Administrator, or designee, the option for voluntary layoffs may be provided for employees in good standing who are located in the affected court, probation department or office.

31.C.1. – Eligibility for Voluntary Layoff – An employee in good standing shall be defined as having scored a 3.0 or higher on the most recent performance appraisal and not having received a combination of two or more corrective or disciplinary actions in the previous 24 months.

31.C.1.a. – Employees may request voluntary layoff for either all or a portion of the position encumbered.

31.C.2. – Approval of Voluntary Layoff – Any request to be voluntarily laid off must be approved by the Administrative Authority in the impacted court, probation department or office and must be approved by the State Court Administrator, or designee, prior to any other layoffs in the affected district.

31.C.3 – Reemployment After Voluntary Layoff – All employees approved for voluntary layoff shall be placed on a reemployment list according to retention score. The reemployment list shall be valid for 24 months from the effective date of voluntary layoff. Reemployment to the same court, probation department or office within the same class in which the employee was employed prior to layoff shall be offered in order of retention score. The Administrative Authority may also offer reemployment for any position which the employee meets the minimum job qualifications. Upon reemployment, the employee shall be restored to the same employment status, either at-will, probationary or certified, as was held at the effective date of the voluntary layoff.

31.C.3.a – Length of Service, Compensation and Leave Benefits Upon Reemployment After Voluntary Layoff – The reemployed employee shall be treated as if the employee had not been laid off and shall receive credit for time spent while laid off for the purpose of calculating length of service. An employee who is reemployed within two years after layoff into the same job classification may be paid at the same salary rate upon reemployment as the rate of pay at the time of separation. If the employee accepts reemployment to a lower level position and the employee’s former salary is over the range maximum, salary shall be assigned to the range maximum of the new classification. If the employee accepts reemployment to a higher level classification, the employee shall be treated as a new employee for the purposes of establishing an initial rate of pay. The voluntarily laid off employee shall not retain leave balances that have been paid out at separation or accrue leave during the period of time between layoff and reemployment. Other service benefits shall not be adversely affected except that retirement service credit and highest average salary shall be determined in accordance with PERA rules and regulations.

31.D. – Priorities for Initial Layoffs – When the State Court Administrator, or designee, has announced the need for layoffs, they shall occur in the following order.

31.D.1. – Employees issued any combination of two or more of the following disciplinary and/or corrective actions within 24 months from the date the State Court Administrator, or designee, announces the need for layoffs. Employees shall be laid off in the following order:

31.E. – Exempt from Layoff – The following employees shall be exempt from layoff.

31.E.1. – Top Performers – When the State Court Administrator, or designee, has announced the need for layoff, all employees determined to be top performers in one of the two most recent annual certified performance appraisals will be exempted from layoff. This exemption can be overruled by the State Court Administrator, or designee, if the layoff becomes necessary through closure of an office or abolishment of the affected classification in the court, probation department or office. Top performing employees who are affected by the provisions of 31.D. of this rule shall not have protection from layoff.

31.E.2. – Special Qualifications – An employee filling a position with special qualifications as approved by the State Court Administrator, or designee, shall not be laid off. An exemption based on special qualifications must be preapproved on an individual basis and recorded by the State Court Administrator, or designee. No exemption may be given to employees who would be affected by the provisions of Rule 31.D.

31.E.3. – Performance Management Team (PMT) Members – PMT members who score at the same or higher level as any top performer in the past two years in their current court, probation department or office shall receive protection from layoff. PMT members who are affected by the provisions of 31.D. of this rule shall not have protection from layoff.

31.F. – Secondary Layoffs – Employees not affected by the provisions of Rules 31.C., 31.D. or 31.E. shall be subject to secondary layoff based on their retention scores as calculated in accordance with this rule based on a formula taking into consideration an employee's job performance, the employee's length of service and group assignment. All non-grant contract employees and probationary employees in an affected class and location identified for layoff in this rule must be displaced before certified employees as part of secondary layoffs.

For the purposes of this section, grant employees are defined as being paid from non-judicial state agency granted funds, federal grants or other non-judicial grantors. Monies that are paid from judicial funds for the purposes of grant matching or in-kind services or resources for grant positions shall not change the categorization of the position as being a grant-funded position.

31.F.1. – Reemployment After Secondary Layoff – Employees who are laid off under section 31.F. of this rule shall have no right to reemployment. Employees who apply for and successfully obtain a position in the same classification within a two year period after being laid off, the employee shall have length of service and leave accrual rates restored. An employee who is reemployed within two years after layoff into the same job classification may be paid at the same salary rate upon reemployment as the rate of pay at the time of separation.

31.G. – Calculating Retention Scores – Retention scores shall be calculated for all classified employees except those employees exempt under 31.C., 31.D. and 31.E. of this rule.

31.G.1. – A retention score will be generated for each employee in a designated affected group and titled “retention score” using a calculation developed by the Human Resources Division and approved for statewide use by the State Court Administrator, or designee.

31.G.1.a. – The retention score formula shall be weighted at seventy-five percent performance and twenty-five percent length of service time band.

31.G.1.b. – Retention scores shall be calculated by the Human Resources Division. All employees shall be notified by the PMT of their individual retention score and how the score was calculated prior to submission of final layoff plans to the State Court Administrator, or designee.

31.G.1.c. – Employees who occupy more than one position shall have a retention score calculated for each position.

31.G.1.d. – The formula used for determining retention scores is a matter within the discretion of the State Court Administrator, or designee, and not subject to review, appeal or grievance. Employees shall be given a minimum of ten days to review and either confirm or appeal their retention score with the Human Resources Division. An employee may appeal a retention score to the Human Resources Director who shall make a final determination within five days of the appeal.

31.G.2. – Time Bands and Length of Service – For the purpose of determining retention scores, an employee will receive credit for length of service based on time bands. Length of service shall be counted from the employee's effective date of initial employment, including time spent on contract, less any periods of unpaid leave, excluding family and medical leave without pay, workers' compensation leave, furlough leave, and qualified military leave. Time between the date of separation and re-employment shall be counted as continuous employment. Any time between a date of separation and reinstatement shall be counted as leave without pay. Only one length of service date shall be calculated for each employee.

31.G.2.a. – A part-time employee shall have length of service and assignment to a time band computed as an equivalent amount of full-time service.

31.G.2.b. – For employees returning from retirement, length of service shall be calculated from the date of rehire unless the employee is being reemployed within the two year period after a voluntary layoff.

31.G.2.c. – Veteran's preference shall be awarded to eligible employee's length of service time band. An honorably discharged veteran who has served less than 20 years in active military service and is eligible for veteran's preference under section 15(3) of article XII of the Colorado Constitution, shall be given length of service credit up to 10 years for time served in the military which shall be added to the length of service calculation used to determine the employee's retention score.

In order to receive credit, the veteran must have been separated under honorable conditions and served for purposes other than training, served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States during any period of any declared war, any undeclared war, other armed hostilities against an armed foreign enemy, served on active duty in any such branch in any campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge is authorized. To confirm the validity of veteran status and receive preferential treatment, employees must provide DD214 documentation. In addition, individuals identified as part of one of the categories listed below shall receive the same preference:

31.G.2.c.i. – Employees who, because of disability incurred in the line of duty, is receiving monetary compensation or disability retired benefits by reason of public laws administered by the Department of Defense or the Veterans Administration, or any successor thereto; or

31.G.2.c.ii. – Employees who are the surviving spouse of any person who was or would have been entitled to additional points under sections 16.A.3.d or 16.A.3.d.i., but who died during such service or as a result of service-connected cause while on active duty in any such branch, other than for training purposes.

31.G.2.d. – Time Band Assignment – Length of service dates shall be assigned to a time band for the purposes of calculating retention scores as follows:

Time Band 1	1.00-1.99 Years of Service	1 point

Time Band 2	2.00-5.99 Years of Service	2 points
