

Law School for Journalists
Tuesday, Dec. 6, 2005
8:30–10 a.m.
1900 Grant Street, 3rd floor, Denver

Presenters: Mark May, May & Associates, PC, Centennial
Ken Skogg, Lowe Fell & Skogg LLC, Denver
Former Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court
Anthony Vollack
Nancy B. Elkind, Stern & Elkind, Denver

Topic: Eminent Domain

Course Overview: The issue of eminent domain continues to be in the headlines on a regular basis in the local, state and federal arenas. “Property may be safer from public seizure” (Denver Post), “House counters eminent-domain ruling” (AP) and “Blocking the court” (RMN), are headlines from just the last few days. State statutes, federal law and case law will be weighing in on the evolving debate. The topic is already drawing the attention of state legislators for the upcoming session — don’t be left in the dust!

RSVP: schesney@cobar.org

Agenda:

- 8:30–9:15 a.m. Mark May, Ken Skogg and Justice Vollack provide a historical perspective of the evolution of laws, legislative declarations and judicial decisions determining the current scope of eminent domain authority.
- 9:15–9:30 a.m. Michael Valdez, CBA’s Director of Legislative Relations, to discuss recent and upcoming legislative issues
- 9:30–9:45 a.m. Questions and answers
- 9:45–10 a.m. Hot Legal Topic Briefing: Immigration now and on the horizon. Immigration expert Nancy Elkind will discuss important issues in business-related immigration legislation.