

Law School for Journalists
Thursday, Jan. 5, 2005
8:30–10 a.m.
1900 Grant Street, 3rd floor, Denver

Presenters: Nancy B. Elkind, Stern & Elkind, Denver
Jeff Joseph, Joseph Law Firm, Denver

Topic: What Every Reporter Needs to Know About Immigration

Course Overview: Immigration is a federal issue with many local implications. The program will provide basic information to clarify the complexities of immigration law — the fundamentals needed by every reporter. Topics will include: identifying immigrant status; different types of VISAs; how to get a green card; rules governing asylum; deportation, and more.

RSVP: schesney@cobar.org

Agenda:

8:30–9:30 a.m. Nancy Elkind and Jeff Joseph will discuss immigration law.

9:30–9:45 a.m. Michael Valdez, CBA's Director of Legislative Relations, will cover recent and upcoming legislative issues

9:45–10 a.m. Questions, answers and wrap-up