

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND ADMISSION OF GUILT OR LIABILITY
UNDER THE COLORADO RULES FOR TRAFFIC INFRACTIONS
(Rule 6, C.R.T.I.)

You have been accused of violating the traffic infraction laws of the State of Colorado. A simplified procedure is available for the payment of fines if you voluntarily admit your guilt or liability after being advised of the following rights:

You have the right to:

1. Be represented by an attorney at your own expense;
2. Remain silent because any statement you make may be used against you;
3. Deny the allegations against you and have a hearing, at which the allegations must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
4. Testify at your own choosing, subpoena witnesses, present evidence, and cross-examine witnesses for the state;
5. Appeal a judgment against you.

Any answer you make must be voluntary and not the result of undue influence. You must understand that points may be assessed against your driving records if you admit guilt or liability.

Admission of Guilt or Liability

I HAVE CAREFULLY READ THE RIGHTS DESCRIBED ABOVE. I HEREBY WAIVE THESE RIGHTS AND VOLUNTARILY ADMIT MY GUILT OR LIABILITY.

Please Note Carefully

Your failure EITHER to sign the above and pay the court the fine and costs OR to appear as directed on your citation will result in a judgment against you. The judgment will be reported to the Colorado Department of Revenue Motor Vehicle Division, which may assess points against your diving record and delay your application for a driver's license until you have paid the court the full amount of the judgment against you.
