

Privacy Policy

The Colorado Courts E-Filing system is the official electronic filing site for the State of Colorado Judicial Department, and is maintained by the Colorado State Court Administrator's Office. This site is intended for the electronic filing and serving of electronic documents, and for searches of cases filed electronically. Any unauthorized attempts to upload or otherwise tamper with the information contained in this database is strictly prohibited, and may be subject to criminal prosecution included under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1984 as amended.

Use of this website is monitored by the Office of the State Court Administrator through audits, review of ad hoc queries, and reports. When a user obtains information through Colorado Courts E-Filing, the web server automatically collects and stores the Internet Protocol address and domain name used. The server also gathers and stores the type of browser and operating system used to access the site. Other information collected includes, but is not limited to, a user's login ID, the dates and times a user accesses Colorado Courts E-Filing, searches, filings submitted, documents served, notifications, and payment history. Any information collected is used to maintain database security, create management reports, and ensure the accuracy of billing inquiries.

This website has hyperlinks to websites that are not maintained by the Colorado State Court Administrator's Office, and we are not responsible for any information given on those third party sites. The Colorado Courts E-Filing Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy do not apply to third party sites.

This website does not give any legal advice and any information contained on this web site should not be construed in any way as legal advice.
