

Resolution happens when open minds align.

Michelle is an ODR Mediator Contractor, as well as an attorney-mediator and Risk Management Coach with ADR Solutions Company. ADR Solutions is a conflict management firm that uses effective problem-solving processes to help parties arrive at their best solutions. Michelle is passionate about party self-sufficiency and avoiding contentious problem solving. She is extremely successful in compassionately resolving legal disputes without needless litigation.

Michelle is a former journalist and holds an MBA/JD in organizational leadership and corporate law from the University of Denver. She also completed post-graduate work at Harvard University School of Law. Her private practice specializes in contract, business, family, and real estate mediation.

Michelle fuses her diverse life experiences as a writer, lawyer, and music lover to help initiate successful, positive resolution. Her respect for story and individual self-sufficiency makes her a fantastic listener and effective driver toward resolution.

Michelle has been a decades-long member of the Colorado Bar and has served in several mission critical roles from Assistant Colorado Attorney General and Judicial District Staff Attorney to tenure-track law professor and private attorney. She is chair emeritus of the ADR Section of the Colorado Bar Association.

Michelle is a native Coloradoan and resides in the Vail Valley. Michelle can be reached at 970-769-0039.
