Courtney Holm received her Juris Doctor from the University of Denver in 2001. She is a Colorado native and has maintained a general law practice throughout her career in the 5th Judicial District and the Mountain areas of Colorado. Her legal experience has been in the areas of Family law (including Adoption, High Conflict, child support, Allocation of Parental Responsibilities, Child Custody, Relocation, Guardianships, Parenting Plans, Separation Agreements, Grandparents Rights, Prenuptial Agreements, Annulments), Civil Litigation, Landlord Tenant issues, Domestic Violence, and Criminal matters.

Ms. Holm completed her Mediation Certification in 2009, and since that time her growing mediation practice has focused on assisting others in reaching practical and real-life resolutions while removing the adversarial component. Ms. Holm believes that when parties participate in the resolution process, the final agreement is more personalized and workable for the parties. She is an excellent communicator and strives to bring parties to understand the other perspectives involved with positive results.

Courtney Holm is a member of the Colorado Bar Association, the Colorado Bar Association Alternate Dispute Resolution Committee, the Colorado Bar Foundation, Founding Member and current President of the Mountain Chapter of the Colorado Women's Bar Association, 5th Judicial District Access to Justice Committee, Continental Divide Bar Association (former President and Vice President), Head of the Continental Divide Bar Association Mentor- Mentee program from 2013- 2016. Ms. Holm actively serves the community in the Eagle County Small Claims Mediation Program, the Northwest Colorado Legal Services, and regularly speaks to school students to educate them in the legal arena.
