

Linda Jaron
Mediator and Attorney

Linda Jaron is an experienced mediator and advocate for children. She has facilitated over 100 mediations over the course of the last year. She has practiced as a Guardian ad Litem in the child welfare arena since 2005 and is recognized as a Child Welfare Law Specialist by the National Association of Counsel for Children. Linda also serves as a court-appointed Child Legal Representative and Parenting Coordinator/Decision Maker in the 4th Judicial District.

Linda attended the University of New Hampshire Franklin Pierce School of Law, where she graduated in the top 10% of her class. She practiced patent law for 8 years in Virginia and remains a registered patent attorney with the United States Patent and Trademark Office. In 2002, Linda was admitted to the Colorado Bar and began practicing family law. Linda also holds a Bachelor's of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Colorado.

Linda spends her free time playing bassoon with the Pikes Peak Philharmonic Orchestra, where she also serves as the Secretary on the Board of Directors. She is committed to lifelong learning – she is trying to become fluent in French and takes piano lessons. Additionally, she enjoys playing golf, hiking, and lifting weights.
