Sara Johnson is the owner of Johnson Mediation Group / Bilingual Mediation Services LLC and has mediated more than 5,000 cases in Colorado. Sara and everyone in her practice is bilingual in Spanish and English. Sara has extensive experience mediating domestic relations as well as civil cases, including eight years of experience mediation in Arapahoe County Child Support Services.

Sara has served as the president of the Mediation Association of Colorado from 2015 through 2017, and on the Board of Directors from 2011 through 2020. She has participated both as faculty and on the planning committee for the ADR Conference in Colorado as well as attending several Family Law Conferences over the past decade.

She is actively involved in Mediators Beyond Borders, participating in their International Congresses in 2015 in Romania, 2017 in Holland and in 2019 in Indonesia.

After graduating from Sarah Lawrence College with a concentration in cultural anthropology, Sara spent twenty years living and working in Spain and South America and brings a broad worldview to her practice.

Sara is dedicated to treating each party that comes to her for mediation with dignity and respect, and to helping create productive dialogue and mutually beneficial, lasting solutions.
