

Chief Judge, Twelfth Judicial District
ORDER CONCERNING THE DRUG OFFENDER
TREATMENT BOARD

CHIEF JUDGE
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
2007-01
Amended 09-14-2012
Amended 04-22-2019
Amended 03-05-2020

In accordance with Colorado Revised Statute §18-19-104 (as revised effective 07-01-2012), Judicial District Drug Offender Treatment Boards, each judicial district shall create a drug offender treatment board consisting of the district attorney serving the judicial district, or his or her designee, the chief public defender serving the judicial district, or his or her designee, the chair of the local community corrections board, or his or her designee, a parole officer working in the judicial district, chosen by the director of the department of corrections, a sheriff that serves the judicial district, chosen by the chief judge, a representative of a drug court in the judicial district, chosen by the chief judge, a person with expertise in juvenile matters, chosen by the chief judge, and a probation officer working in the judicial district, chosen by the chief judge of the judicial district.

Therefore, the following individuals are appointed to the 12th Judicial District Drug Offender Treatment Board:

- Robert Willett, District Attorney 12th Judicial District
- Jamie Keairns, Chief Public Defender 12th Judicial District
- Patrick Stanford, Designee of the Chair of the San Luis Valley Community Corrections Board
- Brent Buser, Parole Officer, Appointed by Director of Department of Corrections
- Robert Jackson, Alamosa County Sheriff
- Marcia Candy, Member of the Alamosa Adult Criminal Drug Court Team
- Chris Montague, a person with expertise in juvenile matters
- Bill Gurule, Chief Probation Officer 12th Judicial District

Dated this 5th day of March 2020.

BY THE COURT:

Michael A. Gonzales
Chief Judge
Twelfth Judicial District