

Recovery Court is the 1st Judicial District's Adult Drug Court. It is a 24 month intensive program that addresses substance dependency and criminal behavior utilizing a collaborative problem solving court model.

The program is voluntary. We want you to have as much information as possible prior to entering the program.

You can find the complete participant handbook on our webpage:

https://www.courts.state.co.us/Courts/District/Custom.cfm?District_ID=1&Page_ID=669

Here are a few things to know about Recovery Court before agreeing to enter the program:

_____ You will not be able to use medical marijuana in Recovery Court.

_____ You will be responsible to get to your Recovery Court services which are all in the Jefferson County/metro Denver area. We have some bus tickets, but you are responsible for your transportation. You will be held accountable for all missed services.

_____ You will be required to submit multiple drug tests per week. We do not allow any other form of testing than urine tests.

_____ You will be required to attend probation appointments weekly in the first phase of the program.

_____ You will be required to attend court reviews weekly in the first phase of the program.

_____ You will be required to attend treatment groups and individual sessions multiple times per week.

_____ You may be required to live at a sober living home as part of your program.

_____ You may be required to complete an inpatient treatment program as part of your program. This can be 21 days or longer where you will live at the facility. Some programs do not let you leave the facility until you have completed.

_____ You must get approval from your Recovery Court probation officer before taking any medications. You will not be allowed to use medication that may be addictive in nature if there are alternatives your doctor agrees to prescribe.

_____ You will receive responses to your behavior from the court each review. These may be incentives for positive behaviors or sanctions for negative behaviors or therapeutic adjustments for treatment progress or lack of progress.

_____ The program does not tolerate tampering with drug tests-including dilute samples.

_____ If you get out of custody and run from the program and/or commit another crime -you may not get another chance at Recovery Court. There is no guaranteed second chance with this program.

_____ You are not able to participate in 2 problem solving courts at the same time. If you are in a family treatment court when accepted to Recovery Court-you will have to choose which program to be in. If you are offered another problem solving court on another case while in Recovery Court-you will have to choose one program.
