

DISTRICT COURT, DENVER COUNTY, COLORADO Court Address: 1437 BANNOCK STREET, RM 256, DENVER, CO, 80202	DATE FILED: November 14, 2023
Plaintiff(s) NORMA ANDERSON et al. v. Defendant(s) JENA GRISWOLD IN HER OFFICIAL CAPACITY et al.
Order: Motion to Intervene for Limited Purpose and Included Notice of Paralell Litigation

The motion/proposed order attached hereto: DENIED.

Under Colorado Rule of Civil Procedure 24, a non-party may intervene in a civil action as a matter of right or by permissive intervention. Rule 24(a) provides for a mandatory right of intervention "when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties." Rule 24(b) allows a court to grant permissive intervention "when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common."

This is not a case of mandatory right of intervention and the Court finds that permissive intervention is inappropriate where there is no question of law or fact in common.

MOTION TO INTERVENE FOR LIMITED PURPOSE AND INCLUDED NOTICE OF PARALLEL LITIGATION

Treniss Jewell Evans III, hereby respectfully requests the Court to grant his MOTION TO INTERVENE in this case for the limited purpose of bringing to the Court's attention for this case and for the record on any appeal, proposed Intervenor's parallel lawsuit in this Court, being Case No. 2023CV32577. Plaintiff Evans in that case has notified the Clerk on the face of his Complaint that this is a related case and suggested assignment to this courtroom and judge also.

Defendants.

In that lawsuit, Evans v. Olson, et al, Case No. 2023CV32577, Evans documents (including with videos posted to a “dropbox” or “cloud” folder¹ posted by researcher David Sumrall of “Stop Hate”) that the Petitioners here have defamed, libeled, and slandered the would-be Intervenor Treniss Evans with false information concerning this case.

Would be Intervenor contends in this parallel lawsuit that the very extensive, multi-state campaign to attempt to disqualify Donald Trump from the ballot could not have happened without the same defamation of Evans having occurred and being “published” or “shared” outside of this lawsuit and likely outside of any attorney-client communications. Moreover, the responsibility of counsel was to be certain evidence presented as an officer of the court to be accurate and truthful. Counsel now has this opportunity to rectify the “wrong” be it error or otherwise.

Many organizing groups like the Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (CREW) must have communicated with each other across many states, pitched the project to their donors to raise funds, and then gone out to search for clients in various states. Intervenor contends that the Petitioners defamed him outside of court and across many States even before they began searching for voters who would agree to be Petitioners, coming up with these plans.

Here, Evans will seek discovery to show that the defamation of Evans was going on – behind the scenes and unknown to Evans – in the plans and preparation for this case and those out-of-court publications of the defamation are not privileged (simply unknown until the preparations culminated in this case here).

Furthermore, Evans has tried to stop the repetition of these falsehoods about him before without success. Evans' objection does not begin by any means with this juncture or this case. Evans attempted to sue the Select Committee to Investigate the 1/6 Attack on the Capitol but was told after filing that the "speech and debate clause" blocked that remedy. Evans' complaint does not originate only in response to the Petition here concerning the 2024 ballot.

Similarly, it should be recognized that the Petitioner's opening statement on Monday, October 30, 2023, and the repeat of this topic on Thursday, November 2, 2023, were intentionally audio-visual presentations, not mere words. The videos presented to the Court as evidence showed Treniss Evans visually with his bright yellow ski hat and blue megaphone.

Thus, Treniss Evans – and no one else – was identified by the Petitioners as inciting a violent attack on the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021, and causing an insurrection, and triggering a crowd that was peaceful at 2:23 PM into violently charging the U.S. Capitol at 2:24 PM.

But the video of Treniss Evans reading several news and tweets over his bullhorn happened at around 4:22 PM and did not play any role in inciting a violent attack on the Capitol. The Petitioners here have defamed Evans as one step below treason, falsely and recklessly.

Evans is aware that a motion to intervene is usually about a party participating as a full-blown party in a case. Evans is not asking for that drastic a step nor burden.

THEREFORE, Evans moves the Court for the limited intervention to:

- 1) File this NOTICE of the parallel litigation by this document to inform this Court of the falsehoods in the evidence presented by the Petitioners about Treniss Evans,
- 2) File a full copy of Evans' Complaint in the record in this case to inform the Court and complete the record on appeal,
- 3) Ask the Court to take judicial notice of the parallel litigation filed in this courthouse.
