Can You Chip In?

They're trying to change history—don't let them. In the chaotic atmosphere of 2020, the Wayback Machine is a crucial resource in the fight against disinformation, and now more than ever we need your help. Right now we're preserving history as it unfolds, keeping track of who's saying what and when—all without charging for access, selling user data, or running ads. Instead, we rely on the generosity of individuals to help us keep the record straight.

Right now, the Internet Archive (which runs this project) has a 2-to-1 Matching Gift Campaign, tripling the impact of every donation. If you find our public record useful, please pitch in.

UPDATED 2:15 PM PT – Saturday, September 19, 2020

President Trump continues to voice his concerns about mail-in voting this election season. During Friday’s press conference, the President said voters will be overwhelmed with “tens of millions of ballots” they did not request.

“You don’t have to know a lot about politics,” he added. “This is going to be the scam of all time.”

He also pointed out no one is more aware of the perils of mail-in voting than Democrats. However, he emphasized they’ll never acknowledge it because it helps them politically.

“They know it’s going to be a mess, they know there are going to be millions of missing ballots,” he stated. “There’s going to be fraud, it’s a disaster.”

The President’s reelection campaign has already launched lawsuits against several states, including Montana, Nevada and New Jersey, to block mail-in voting efforts.
