No thanks, Blaine. We will use the court's reporter if we need to, and if anyone should pay for security it is Oltmann.

Subject: Coomer v. Trump, et al. (CO)

Dear counsel:

We're considering hiring a private court reporter (probably from Veritext) to transcribe the anti-SLAPP hearing. We'd like a real-time feed and a same-day transcript after the first day. Are you interested in jointly moving for leave to do this and splitting the cost 50/50 with the defendants (subject to potential recovery of our cost if we win our anti-SLAPP motion(s))?

Also, have you given any consideration to potentially moving for leave to enhance security at the courthouse for the anti-SLAPP hearing? And if so, is that a cost you'd be interested in splitting 50/50 with the defendants (subject to potential recovery of our cost if we win our anti-SLAPP motion(s))?

Please share your thoughts.

Thanks.

Blaine
