

SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT, STATE OF COLORADO

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 17-08

Order Regarding the Location of Hearings for Archuleta County Defendants Who Are in the Custody of the Archuleta County Sheriff

It is hereby Ordered that:

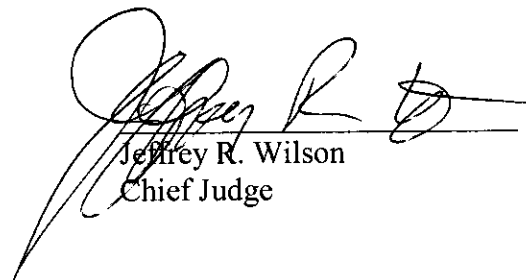

1. Due to the Archuleta County Sheriff's administrative offices and jail being closed for an indeterminate amount of time;
2. Due to the safety hazards inherent in the obsolescent design of the Archuleta County Courthouse which endangers the public, courthouse staff, attorneys and inmates; and,
3. Due to the danger of transporting prisoners to and from the La Plata County Jail where the Archuleta County Sheriff is currently housing inmates, until further order of the Court, all hearings involving inmates of the Archuleta County Jail will be held in the La Plata County Courthouse in Durango, Colorado.

There are additional factors for the Court to consider in determining whether to extend this order to require that the trials of in-custody defendants occur in La Plata County. The Court may, in the future, also order that all trials of in-custody defendants occur in La Plata County.

This order is effective September 18, 2017.

Signed this 6th day of September, 2017.

Jeffrey R. Wilson
Chief Judge
