Order Regarding P-45 and P-46

In its order of November 16, 2020, regarding the People's Motion in Limine to Preclude the Defendant from Eliciting White Van Evidence from Starla Johnson, James Adcock or Angela Lee (P-45), and the related Motion in Limine to Preclude the Defense from Offering Inadmissible Evidence (P-46, but incorrectly referred to in the Court's order as P-45) the Court ruled that it would need additional information from the parties prior to deciding the motions. The Court's order stated that a hearing would be set for the parties to provide any offers of proof or additional arguments that they wished to present. The defense has provided offers of proof regarding both motions (D-183 and D-184). If the parties wish to present the Court with any additional offers of proof or arguments regarding these motions, the Court will give the parties the opportunity to do so at the PTC set for May 14, 2021. Otherwise, the Court will rule upon the motions based upon the documents that have been previously filed.
