

|                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DISTRICT COURT, LA PLATA COUNTY, COLORADOCourt Address:1060 East 2nd Avenue, Room 106, Durango, CO, 81301-5157 | DATE FILED: August 21, 2018△ COURT USE ONLY △ |
| The People of the State of Coloradov.MARK ALLEN REDWINE                                                        |                                                                                                     |
| Order to Respond                                                                                                |                                                                                                     |
| Case Number: 2017CR343Division: 1                      Courtroom:                                                  |                                                                                                     |

The prosecution has not filed a response to Defense D-15 regarding the reasons the prosecution desires/needs to conduct consumptive retesting of evidence that has already been subjected to DNA analysis. If no such response is filed within 21 days, the Court may consider the motion confessed and order that there be no further prosecution re-testing of such evidence.

Issue Date: 8/21/2018

JEFFREY RAYMOND WILSON
 District Court Judge