Supplemental Order Upon Defense Motion 174

When the Court denied defense motion 174 requesting a pretrial hearing prior to allowing jailhouse informants to testify, the Court neglected to rule upon the prosecution's request in its response that the Court prohibit the defense from referring to such witnesses as "snitches." The defense has not replied to this request.

The Court finds the prosecution's request to be appropriate. The Court orders that the defense shall not be allowed to refer to prosecution witnesses James Clouse and Broc Flahavan as snitches or by any other derogatory terms.
