The Larimer County Justice Center located in Old Town Fort Collins at 201 Laporte Avenue and opened in September 2000, while the Loveland Police and Courts Building is located at 810 East 10th Street and opened in Loveland in February 2002 with two county courtrooms. These buildings were constructed to meet the growing needs of the courts and communities in Larimer County. In 2013, Larimer County provided funds for additional remodeling in the Larimer County Justice Center for the construction of a Court Resource Center which began operation on December 4, 2013. The Court Resource Center is staffed by 1.5 Self-Represented Litigant Coordinator, who provides procedural assistance to self-represented litigants. The Court Resource Center is designed to help people better understand court processes and obtain forms needed in non-criminal cases, such as divorce and family matters, child support, money claims, evictions, temporary or permanent restraining orders, probate estates, guardianships, or small claims disputes. The Court Resource Center also provides computer access for research and preparation of documents. In addition to assisting litigants in the Larimer County Justice Center, assistance is available at the Loveland Police and Courts Building by appointment. The Self-Represented Litigants Coordinator assists residents of Larimer and Jackson Counties via telephone and email at 08CourtResourceCenter@judicial.state.co.us . In September 2019, the Probation Department relocated from the Larimer County Justice Center to 1600 Prospect Parkway to accommodate the addition of a new courtroom.

Larimer County held its first Warrant Clearance Event in September 2022, allowing defendants to take care of an active warrant without getting arrested for eligible offenses. Additional community resources were also present at the event, including Summitstone Health Partners, Murphy Center/Homeward Alliance, Veterans Affairs Medical Center, free vaccines through the Larimer County Department of Health and Environment, among many more. Due to the success of this event, future Warrant Clearance Events will be scheduled.
