

8th Judicial District Self-Help Center

The Self-Help Center is available to assist self-represented parties involved in legal proceedings in the 8th Judicial District. The Self-Help Center is located on the first floor of the Larimer County Justice Center, next to the Clerk of Court Office, at 201 Laporte Avenue, Fort Collins, Colorado. The Self-Represented Litigant Coordinator is on staff at the Self-Help Center to provide parties without attorneys free procedural information and will also assist in completing forms. The staff can answer questions about forms, the legal system, court procedure and court processes but CANNOT provide legal advice. Public access computers are available for research and completing forms.

Hours:

Monday & Friday 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Wednesdays 12:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Thursdays by appointment

To schedule an appointment, email 08SelfHelp@judicial.state.co.us or visit the Self-Help Center during regular business hours.

How can the Self-Help Center help you?

Here are just a few ways the Self-Help Center can provide assistance to self-represented individuals:

We Can...

Locate and Access Forms

Look Up Orders

Check Your Case Status

Assist you with Filling Out Forms

Determine Which Form You May Need

Check Forms for Completeness

Provide General Information About Court Procedure

Self-Help Personnel are neutral information providers and will provide the same services and information to all parties in a case, if requested. In all cases, it is best to obtain the assistance of your own lawyer, especially if your case contains significant or complicated issues.