Game and Fish Violations – For Game and Fish Violations classified as felonies or misdemeanors use the above bond schedule to set the appropriate bond. If the violation is not classified, set bond at fine set by statute, plus 37% surcharge, plus court costs of $21.00.

Violations involving Domestic Violence – Pursuant to C.R.S. §18-6-803.6(1), all persons charged with crimes involving domestic violence as defined in C.R.S. §18-6-800.3(1), shall be arrested, and, as required by C.R.S. § 18-1-1001(5), shall not be released on bail until a judge has advised the person concerning the terms of the mandatory restraining order in criminal cases (C.R.S. §18-1-1001) and until the person has acknowledged the restraining order as a condition of any bond.

Parolees arrested for Certain Offenses—No bail shall be set for a parolee who is arrested for a crime of violence, for an offense alleging the use or possession of a deadly weapon, for an offense that caused bodily injury to another person or for the possession of a weapon by a previous offender until seventy-two (72) hours after the time of the arrest. C.R.S. § 16-4-101(5).

NOTES

1. When a defendant is arrested, the arresting officer or jail deputy shall set bond according to the above schedule. Such bond will remain in force until the defendant is brought before a Judge at a hearing pursuant to CRS §§ 16-4-103 and 16-4-104. At said hearing the Judge shall exercise her or his discretion as mandated by statute.
2. If a person is charged with more than one offense, the arresting officer or jail deputy shall set bail at the highest bail for the most serious offense according to the above schedule. Bail shall not be accumulated.
3. All bonds accepted under this schedule shall command the person charged with the offense to appear before the Court at a date and time certain which shall be the Court's regularly scheduled arraignment day or the Court's next business day, as the affected court may direct. If the officer has issued a Summons and Complaint, then the return date on the bond shall be the same date that the arresting officer set in the Summons and Complaint. If the Court has set an appearance date, then the return date on the bond shall be the date and time the Court has set.
4. Any person who does not post bond must be taken to the affected court at the earliest possible time but not later than the next advisement session.
5. If a person is arrested on a warrant, the amount of bail set in the warrant will control.
6. All persons arrested on warrants issued in a civil case shall be required to post the bond set in the warrant.
7. Law enforcement officials of the Twelfth Judicial District, or their authorized deputies, may release an arrested person only upon posting of the required bond, unless otherwise authorized by the judge of the affected court, one of the district judges or the "On Call Judge".
8. In a county with a pretrial services program, the judge may grant a PR Bond on any case where the judge finds it appropriate after review of the recommendations of the pretrial services program.
9. All prior bond schedules used or relied on are hereby rescinded.

Dated this 10th day of March, 2015, and Effective March 16, 2015.
