

REFERRAL FOR COURT-ORDERED OBSERVATIONS AND INCOMPETENT TO PROCEED (ITP) COMMITMENTS

Please Note: Observations (Competency, Sanity, Mental Condition) are to address specific questions as described in the statutes. For inpatient commitment ITP defendants, only complete if a CMHIP evaluator did not perform the competency evaluation. If treatment is the primary consideration then the defendant should be considered for civil commitment under 27-65. Observations can be ordered to be performed in jail, outpatient in custody of law enforcement, outpatient not in custody, or inpatient at the Colorado Mental Health Institute at Pueblo (CMHIP). If questions, please contact the Observations Coordinator at CMHIP, 719.546.4834 or fax to 719.546.4845 or e-mail lori.carter@state.co.us. Please fax or email all competency, sanity, and mental condition evaluation court orders, ITP orders, and referral forms to the Observations Coordinator at the above fax number or email address. Please print clearly.
