PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO v. JAMES EAGAN HOLMES, Defendant	Case No. 12CR1522 Division: 201
ORDER REGARDING DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR JURY QUESTIONNAIRE (D-82-A)

On June 14, 2013, the Court granted the defendant's motion for an order requiring all prospective jurors to complete a written questionnaire under oath. See Order D-82 at p. 1. The Court indicated in that Order that it would prepare a questionnaire, distribute it, and afford the parties an opportunity to make objections to it on the record. Id. at p. 2. This Order amends Order D-82.

The Court orders the parties to confer in order to attempt to agree on a questionnaire. In the event the parties file a joint questionnaire, the Court will adopt it as its questionnaire. If the parties cannot agree on a questionnaire, each party must file a separate proposed questionnaire. Should separate proposed questionnaires be submitted, the Court will discuss them with the parties during a hearing in October before drafting the final questionnaire. The joint questionnaire or the proposed individual questionnaires must be filed by no later than September 27, 2013.

Dated this 6th day of August of 2013.
