Re: People v. James Eagan Holmes
Case Number 12CR1522

Dear Members of the Jury:

This is in response to your question about whether there is any sort of guide to where pieces of evidence are and whether there is some way to find things easier. Unfortunately, we cannot provide you with a guide or index to the admitted exhibits.

Sincerely,

Carlos A. Samour, Jr.
Chief Judge
18th Judicial District

WERE THE REPORTS FROM DR. REID,
DR. METZNER, DR. WOODLOCK, & DR. GUR
ADMITTED IN TO EVIDENCE? SAME QUESTION
FOR THE NOTES.

Dear Members of the Jury,

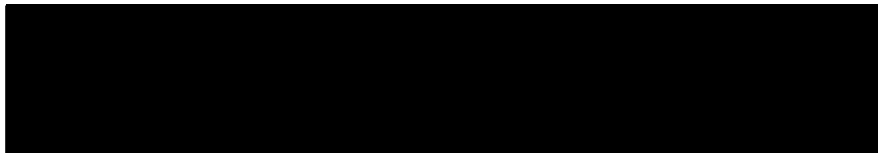

This is in response to your question about whether the reports and notes of Drs. Reid, Metzner, Woodcock, and Gur were admitted into evidence. The reports and notes of these witnesses were not admitted into evidence. With the exception of live ammunition, you have all the exhibits that were admitted into evidence.

Sincerely,

Dear Members of the Jury,

This is in response to your question about Instruction 22, which reads as follows: "Instruction 22 feels informative rather than instructional. What instruction are we to take from it?" Instruction 22 is not an instruction of law. Rather, it informs you about the defendant's theory of the case.

Sincerely,
