Re: People v. James Eagan Holmes; 12CR1522

Dear Members of the Jury:

This is in response to your request for replacement copies of the verdict forms for Counts 1 and 2. You indicated in your note that you made an error on the verdict forms for these counts.

Your request is granted. However, the Court asks that you keep the original verdict forms for Counts 1 and 2. Further, the Court asks that the Foreperson put a large "X" through each page of each form with the Foreperson's signature in the top right hand corner of each page.

Sincerely,

Carlos A. Samour, Jr.
District Court Judge

v.

JAMES EAGAN HOLMES,
Defendant

COURT USE ONLY

Case Number: 12CR1522

Division: 201

PHASE 2 SENTENCING VERDICT FORM

COUNT 1

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE—AFTER DELIBERATION

(Jonathan Blunk)

Phase 2 Sentencing Verdict Question: Does the jury unanimously find beyond a reasonable doubt that the mitigating factors that exist do not outweigh the aggravating factors proven by the prosecution in Phase 1 of the sentencing hearing?

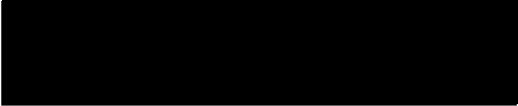

I.* Answer to Phase 2 Sentencing Verdict Question: YES

[REDACTED]

FOREPERSON

II. Answer to Phase 2 Sentencing Verdict Question: NO

FOREPERSON

* If the answer to the Phase 2 Sentencing Verdict Question is "YES," the Foreperson shall sign on the designated line in Section I, and the rest of the jurors shall sign on the other lines in Section I; in that event, the sentencing hearing will continue to Phase 3 on this count. Only one Section (Section I or Section II) shall be completed.

 If the answer to the Phase 2 Sentencing Verdict Question is "NO," the foreperson shall sign on the designated line in Section II; in that event, the sentencing hearing will end with respect to this count and, based solely on the jury's Phase 2 sentencing verdict, the defendant will be sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole on this count. Only one Section (Section I or Section II) shall be completed.
