IV. No-Bond Hold

- ◆ There shall be a no-bond hold for capital offenses when proof is evident or presumption is great.
- ◆ Pursuant to C.R.S. § 16-4-101(1)(b), there shall be a no-bond hold when the defendant is accused in any of the following cases, pending a hearing within ninety-six hours of arrest and upon reasonable notice, at which time a further Order as to bail will enter:
  - Crime of Violence while on probation or parole
  - Crime of Violence while on bail for a crime of violence post probable cause finding

- Crime of Violence after two previous felony convictions or one previous felony conviction for a crime of violence
  - Possession of a weapon by a previous offender alleged to have been committed in violation of C.R.S. § 18-12-108(2)(b), (2)(c), (4)(b), or (5).
  - Sexual assault, as described in section C.R.S. § 18-3-402; sexual assault in the first degree, as described in C.R.S. § 18-3-402, as it existed prior to July 1, 2000; sexual assault in the second degree, as described in C.R.S. § 18-3-403, as it existed prior to July 1, 2000; sexual assault on a child, as described in C.R.S. § 18-3-405; or sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust, as described in C.R.S. § 18-3-405.3, in which the victim is fourteen years of age or younger and seven or more years younger than the accused
- ☐ Pursuant to C.R.S. § 16-4-101(1)(b), the no-bond hold will remain in place when, after a hearing held within ninety-six hours of arrest and upon reasonable notice, the court finds that the proof is evident or the presumption is great as to the crime alleged to have been committed and finds that the public would be placed in significant peril if the accused were released on bail and such person is accused with any of the non-capital offenses listed in the preceding paragraph.

V. When a Mandatory Protection Order is Required Before Bond is Posted

- No bond may be posted in cases involving domestic violence as defined in C.R.S. § 18-6-800.3(1), stalking pursuant to C.R.S. § 18-3-602, or unlawful sexual behavior pursuant to C.R.S. § 16-22-102(9), until the court issues a mandatory protection order and states the terms of the protection order on the record in the defendant's presence, and requires the defendant to acknowledge in court and in writing the mandatory protection order prior to release as a condition of any bond for the release of the defendant.

VI. Bond Schedule for General Traffic, Misdemeanor, and Petty Offenses

- A. (1) In exercising his/he discretion pursuant to C.R.S. § 16-4-104, the judicial officer shall release the accused upon personal recognizance if the charge is a class 3 misdemeanor or a petty offense, or any unclassified offense for a violation of which the maximum penalty does not exceed six months imprisonment, and the accused shall not be required to supply a surety bond or give security of any kind for his or her appearance for trial other than his or her personal recognizance, unless one or more of the following facts are found to be present:
- (a) The accused fails to sufficiently identify himself or herself; or
  - (b) The accused refuses to sign a personal recognizance; or

- (c) The continued detention or posting of a surety bond is necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to the accused or to another; or
- (d) The accused has no ties to the jurisdiction of the court reasonably sufficient to assure his or her appearance, and there is substantial likelihood that he or she will fail to appear for trial if released upon his or her personal recognizance; or
- (e) The accused has previously failed to appear for trial for an offense concerning which he or she had given his written promise to appear; or
- (f) There is an outstanding a warrant for the accused's arrest on any other charge or there are pending proceedings against him or her for suspension or revocation of parole or probation.
